U.S. Help Reported On Way To Formosa To Meet Red Threat

Adm. Smoot Silent About Form Of Aid

Declares Combined U.S., Nationalist Efforts Are Needed

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The top U. S. commander on Formosa said today American help is coming to meet the Communist threat to the Chinese Nationalist offshore islands.

Vice Adm. Roland N. Smoot told a news conference it would take the combined efforts of the Nationalists "and the help of the United States which is coming to overcome this immediate situation" created by Red bombardments of the islands and efforts to blockade them.

Smoot declined to tell what help he meant, saying it would be foolish to give the Communists military information. He also refused to say whether this meant U. S. forces would help defend the offshore islands, a commitment American officials from President Eisenhower down have refused so far to make publicly.

Smoot is commander of the U. S. Taiwan (Formosa) Defense Command, which is committed to protecting Formosa and the nearby Pescadores Islands. Congress also authorized Eisenhower to defend any other Nationalist territory he considered essential to the defense of Formosa.

As the Communists continued for the 12th day an artillery attack on the Quemoy islands that might be a prelude to an invasion attempt, Smoot was asked if they could successfully invade or blockade the islands. "They can do neither," he replied.

The Nationalists said they still were getting soldiers and supplies through to Quemoy despite Red attempts to cut it off from Formosa.

Smoot said there are many ways to break a blockade attempt. "As far as the enemy blockade of Quemoy is concerned, I can tell you the Chinese (Nationalist)

Director Gives Safety Plea As School Opens

In connection with the start of the 1958-59 school term in East Liverpool today, Safety - Srevice Director Dan Maggianetti issued safety reminders to motorists, pupils and their parents.

He tacked on a stern warning against hot-rod tactics on the part of high school students who drive their own autos to classes instead of using buses provided by the taxpayers:

"We won't tolerate any 'capers' or fast driving in the city by high school students who drive cars," the director warned. "There was evidence this morning a lot of that was taking place."

The director asked parents to pass on these instructions to their children:

1. Obey the orders of school crossing guards absolutely.

2. In walking to and from school, stay on sidewalks.

3. If there are no sidewalks, stay on the side of the road facing traffic so you can see oncoming cars. If possible, stay off the traveled portion of the street or road in places where there are no sidewalks.

4. Children should not walk in large groups in the middle of the street. Unless children stop the practice, they will become a concern of the police department for their own safety.

The director reminded drivers of the city ordinance that forbids passing a school bus halted to pick up or discharge children.

Known as Section 412 of the city code, it provides that "the driver of a vehicle when approaching the front or rear of a school bus that has come to a stop on a street or road within the corporate limits of the city while in the act of receiving or discharging school children shall stop such vehicle not less than 10 feet from such school bus and keep such vehicle stationary until such children have entered the bus or have alighted and reached the nearest adjacent side of such street or road."

Police have been instructed to check carefully for compliance with the school bus law, the director warned.

Meanwhile, he announced appointment of the 10th woman school crossing guard, completing the adult force that will protect children on their way to and from classes.

She is Mrs. Edith Williams, 745 Garner Ave., who will be stationed at the Taft School crossing in Maplewood.

Some Postpone Opening

Integrated Schools Open Quietly In Southern Areas

By The Associated Press

White and Negro children quietly attended racially mixed schools in several Southern states Tuesday almost unnoticed in the turmoil kicked up by the integration crisis.

Elsewhere, possible flareups in the bitter desegregation conflict between state and federal authority were avoided temporarily by the postponement of school opening dates.

There were one or two minor incidents, but on the whole the children seemed to get along better than their elders, busy with legal maneuvers, charges and delaying tactics.

At Little Rock, Ark., where Central High's opening date was delayed until Sept. 15 to give the Supreme Court time to hear oral arguments on the case, Gov. Orval E. Faubus said U.S. marshals were being mustered for duty in the event the court orders integration to be resumed.

The governor did not say where he obtained the information and the Justice Department would neither confirm nor deny the report.

About the same time plans were reported for chartering the state's first Ku Klux Klan chapter since the 1920s in Little Rock.

In Kentucky, it was just another schoolday for 20 Negroes and 161 white pupils attending classes together for the first time at Fulton High. The school was desegregated by court order.

"We didn't expect any trouble and didn't have any," said Principal J. M. Martin.

Three other schools also held their first racially mixed classes in Nelson County, Ky., without trouble. Sturgis High, where the National Guard was called out in 1956, also opened quietly with 25 Negroes attending.

In the west Arkansas city of Van Buren, however, 13 Negro pupils reporting for classes at integrated Van Buren High were confronted by crudely painted signs saying "This Is a White School" and "Nigger, Go Home.'

There was no physical contact but Negro pupils said about 20 white boys yelled offensive remarks.

In contrast, white pupils and Negroes went to classes in a friendly atmosphere at the junior high school across town. There are five Negroes enrolled in the junior high. Van Buren is one of nine cities in the state in which schools have been integrated.

The second year of mixed classes were scheduled to begin today at Charlotte and Greensboro, N.C. Police were on the alert but officials said they expected no trouble. At Winston-Salem, preparations were being made for four Negroes to enroll in white schools Thursday. About 200 pupils in that city withdrew from an elementary school to be attended by three Negro children.

In Tennessee, 10 Negro boys and girls went to classes with 873 white pupils at Clinton High without incident. The school was the scene of violence two years ago when Negroes first were admitted.

Electors Start Drive To Sign

32 New Registrations Recorded In 2 Days

A registration rush has started to develop at the County Election Board's office, although the deadline for qualifying for the Nov. 4 general election does not fall until Sept. 24, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, commented today.

The heavier - than - usual elector enrollment indicates that registration drives of several organizations are bearing fruit, O'Hanlon said. Thirty - two new registrations were recorded in the board's last 2 business days, boosting to 10,117 the number of East Liverpool residents qualified for the November balloting.

The board registered 19 Saturday and 13 Tuesday. The rush started again when the board first opened its office this morning.

As part of its twice yearly voter enrollment drive, the board has arranged for precinct registration Tuesday, Sept. 16. Two registrars will be named to serve in each of the city's 32 polling places.

The contracts have been signed for the last of the registration locations and notices are being sent to the two registrars designated for each site, O'Hanlon said. A Democrat and a Republican will work in each polling place.

Meanwhile, St. Clair Township trustees filed a resolution asking a vote on a seven - tenth mill levy for current expenses. Although the purpose was not explained in the resolution, the levy is designed to finance a zoning program. In effect one year, the levy would require a 60 per cent vote for approval.

The St. Clair filing means that all except one of the special questions and issues anticipated for the fall ballot has been filed. The lone "holdout" is the Salem Board of Education, which has indicated it will submit a 1.9-mill levy.

Hurricane's Squalls Rough South Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Squalls on the fringe of tropical storm Ella roughed south Florida today with winds in gusts of 40 to 50 m.p.h.

Located 75 miles south of Havana, Cuba, Ella whirled 55 m.p.h. squally winds as it moved with an ill - defined center toward the northwest. It was moving along at 13 m.p.h.

Reduced from huricane force that took five lives in Cuba, Ella was expected to move toward the northwest at a faster clip today and build up over the southeast Gulf of Mexico.

Gale warnings were flying south of the Greater Miami area and the Florida Keys. Small craft warnings were aloft on both Florida coasts northward to Palm Beach and Fort Myers.

The Weather Bureau said gusts up to 33 m.p.h. whistled through Miami today. Widespread reports of broken limbs and other slight damage were received.

Key West reported gusts estimated at 50 m.p.h. during a squall Tuesday. No damage was reported.

Havana reports said a woman and four children were drowned in the town of Bayamo, 60 miles northwest of Santiago. They were trapped in the waters of a flood-swollen river.

'Buy American' Parade To Draw Many Tonight

Crowds are expected to line downtown East Liverpool streets tonight at 7 for a parade of seven bands, labor representatives and other units marking a "Buy American — Buy Union Label" drive sponsored by the Trades and Labor Council.

Forming at Walnut St. and Bradshaw Ave., the line of march will follow the traditional parade route —west on 5th St., north on Jefferson St. and east on 6th St. to Walnut St. The parade will disband at Memorial Auditorium for a rally sponsored by Trades Council.

Principal speaker will be Joseph Lewis of Washington, secretary-treasurer of the Union Label and Service Trades Department of the AFL-CIO.

Stores Set Late Hours As Holiday's Aftermath

Because they were closed Monday for the Labor Day holiday, East Liverpool stores skipped the usual Wednesday noon closing today to remain open until 5 p. m.

Except in December and in holiday weeks, the stores close at noon each Wednesday. Banks closed at noon today — as usual on Wednesdays — but savings and loan institutions were to stay open until 3 because of the holiday Monday.

Dulles Winds Up Study On Red Chinese

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles winds up an intensive new study of the China crisis today preparatory to making a personal report to President Eisenhower.

Dulles was closeted in his office Tuesday with members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, including Gen. Nathan Twining, the chairman, and other Defense Department officials.

Shortly afterward, Eisenhower's vacation headquarters at Newport, R. I., announced Dulles will fly there for a conference Thursday with the President.

About the same time, the State Department confirmed in a statement that Dulles spent his second day back from vacation getting a top-level Pentagon briefing.

The key question is whether the United States would fight to defend Quemoy, Matsu and the other Nationalist-held islands which lie within sight of the China mainland in the Formosa Strait.

U. S. air and sea reinforcements already have been sent into the area to back up the strong 7th Fleet force already there.

The United States is committed by treaty to defend Formosa. But it is left to the President to decide whether that defense requires also the defense of the offshore islands.

Dulles' findings, during these three days of close examination, presumably would help Eisenhower reach his crucial decision if Red China actually launches the attack it has long threatened.

U.S. Military Strength Seen Ahead Of Reds

McElroy Says U.S., Allies Could Win Either Type Of War

CHICAGO (AP) — The United States is ahead of the Soviet Union in over-all military strength, says Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy. He asserted this country and its allies are strong enough to win either a general or limited war.

McElroy, in a speech to the national commander's dinner at the American Legion's annual convention Tuesday night, also spoke out against increased spending now on the long-range ballistic missile program, saying more spending now "would be an unwarranted risk of your money."

He took issue with those he described as oracles who predict the United States will be unable to match Soviet military strength in the years ahead.

He said he and President Eisenhower both have "the utmost confidence that the United States has both the capability and the determination to keep a gap in overall comparative military strength from opening. I said keep it from opening because it does not now exist."

McElroy said the Soviets are ahead of the United States in the development of an intercontinental ballistic missile," and added: "I stress the word 'development' because both countries are now in a developmental stage—a testing and proving stage."

President Eisenhower, in a message read by McElroy, said the nation's citizens can bring about a victory in peace over communism by "selfless devotion to the work and sacrifice which are indispensable to the strength and security of our country."

The Legion's Distinguished Service Medal was awarded to financier Bernard M. Baruch, who was not present.

The Legion, at final business sessions Thursday, will elect new officers. Preston Moore, a Stilwell, Okla., lawyer, appeared to have the inside track for election as national commander, succeeding John S. Gleason of Chicago.

City Seaman's Body Found In Philadelphia

An East Liverpool man who survived both World War II and the Korean conflict has lost his life while serving in the peacetime Navy at the Philadelphia Naval Yard.

The body of Seaman Norman Marion, 32, son of Mr. and Mrs Edward Marion, 957 High St., was found Tuesday in the Delaware River at Philadelphia. Reported missing from the base since Monday, he had re - enlisted in the Navy about six weeks ago and was stationed in Philadelphia awaiting assignment to a ship.

The family received a telegram Tuesday from the commandant of the naval yard with notification of the seaman's death, but giving no explanation or details. The Navy said another telegram would be forwarded giving details and arrangements for shipment of the body to East Liverpool. He made his home with his parents at the East End address.

Seaman Marion served in the Navy during World War II and in the Korean Conflict he was called to duty as an Army Reservist. The family said he was called to service in Korea because he was a member of Co. A, 778th Tank Battalion, the East Liverpool Army Reserve unit.

After the Korean fighting, he returned to civilian life. Before enlisting in the Navy again in late July at the East Liverpool Recruiting station, he was employed as a maintenance man at the Edwin M. Knowles China Co.

In addition to his parents, he leaves two brothers, Wayne Robert Marion of Pennsylvania Ave. and William Arthur Marion, serving with the Marine Corps at Quantico, Va.; a sister, Mrs. Marlane Sell of Harvey Ave.; two sons, Raymond Marion of Palmdale, Calif., and Michael Thomas Marion of East Liverpool, and a daughter, Bonnie Louise Marion, also of Palmdale.

Iceland Press Hits Britain In Fishing Issue

Charges Aggression And Demands British Trawlers Go Home

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — Icelandic anger was reflected in the nation's press today against British naval action in Iceland's fishing dispute with Britain.

A brickbat and smoke bomb demonstration outside the British ambassador's residence Tuesday night was followed this morning with charges of armed aggression and demands that Britain call its gunboats and trawlers home.

Thodvilijinn, the Communist newspaper, demanded that Iceland break relations with Britain, its North Atlantic (NATO) ally.

"Don't negotiate with pirates," it said. "Sever diplomatic relations at once."

Iceland's minister of fisheries, Ludwig Josephsson, is a Communist in this country's coalition government.

Reykjavik's other papers had headlines about Tuesday's clashes between British sailors and Icelandic coastguardmen.

"Sooner or later the British will be forced to follow the example of other nations in this matter," the newspaper Pippin said.

"If they don't this might become a very serious dispute, threatening to assume international significance and of great damage to the cooperation of Western nations—particularly NATO."

"This is armed aggression," said Althydubladid, the newspaper of Foreign Minister Gudmunder Gudmundsson's party.

'Hire Now' Campaign Continues Productive

Dinsmore reported 56 more persons secured work last week, including 33 returning to work and 23 obtaining jobs through the OSES' efforts.

Of the 33 returning to work, 23 were recalled by employers and 10 found other positions, Dinsmore said.

The body of Seaman Norman Marion, 32, son of Mr. and Mrs Edward Marion, 957 High St., was found Tuesday in the Delaware River at Philadelphia. Reported missing from the base since Monday, he had re - enlisted in the Navy about six weeks ago and was stationed in Philadelphia awaiting assignment to a ship.

The family received a telegram Tuesday from the commandant of the naval yard with notification of the seaman's death, but giving no explanation or details. The Navy said another telegram would be forwarded giving details and arrangements for shipment of the body to East Liverpool. He made his home with his parents at the East End address.

Seaman Marion served in the Navy during World War II and in the Korean Conflict he was called to duty as an Army Reservist. The family said he was called to service in Korea because he was a member of Co. A, 778th Tank Battalion, the East Liverpool Army Reserve unit.

After the Korean fighting, he returned to civilian life. Before enlisting in the Navy again in late July at the East Liverpool Recruiting station, he was employed as a maintenance man at the Edwin M. Knowles China Co.

In addition to his parents, he leaves two brothers, Wayne Robert Marion of Pennsylvania Ave. and William Arthur Marion, serving with the Marine Corps at Quantico, Va.; a sister, Mrs. Marlane Sell of Harvey Ave.; two sons, Raymond Marion of Palmdale, Calif., and Michael Thomas Marion of East Liverpool, and a daughter, Bonnie Louise Marion, also of Palmdale.

Iceland Press Hits Britain In Fishing Issue

Charges Aggression And Demands British Trawlers Go Home

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — Icelandic anger was reflected in the nation's press today against British naval action in Iceland's fishing dispute with Britain.

A brickbat and smoke bomb demonstration outside the British ambassador's residence Tuesday night was followed this morning with charges of armed aggression and demands that Britain call its gunboats and trawlers home.

Thodvilijinn, the Communist newspaper, demanded that Iceland break relations with Britain, its North Atlantic (NATO) ally.

"Don't negotiate with pirates," it said. "Sever diplomatic relations at once."

Iceland's minister of fisheries, Ludwig Josephsson, is a Communist in this country's coalition government.

Reykjavik's other papers had headlines about Tuesday's clashes between British sailors and Icelandic coastguardmen.

"Sooner or later the British will be forced to follow the example of other nations in this matter," the newspaper Pippin said.

"If they don't this might become a very serious dispute, threatening to assume international significance and of great damage to the cooperation of Western nations—particularly NATO."

"This is armed aggression," said Althydubladid, the newspaper of Foreign Minister Gudmunder Gudmundsson's party.

'Hire Now' Campaign Continues Productive

The Ohio State Employment Service's "Hire Now!" campaign continued to show results during the last week, Harry L. Dinsmore, manager, said.

Dinsmore reported 56 more persons secured work last week, including 33 returning to work and 23 obtaining jobs through the OSES' efforts.

Of the 33 returning to work, 23 were recalled by employers and 10 found other positions, Dinsmore said.

Opportunity Knocks Every Year

Instead of telling the school generation how grateful it should be for the educational opportunity that knocks every year and how stupid it is not to take advantage of it, perhaps the post-school generation should tell how grateful it would be for another chance.

Most of us who look back at our education, instead of having the privilege of looking forward to it, know we did not make the most of our opportunities. For one reason or another, we let something get in the way.

If we had another chance to go to school, knowing what we know now, we would let nothing get in the way of the opportunity to make the most of whatever aptitude we had.

We would always put education first and foremost.

We would soak up information like a sponge and try to retain it.

We would think of our teachers as people paid to help us improve our resources and develop our capacities, never as persons who bothered and annoyed us by interfering with our personal ideas of behavior.

We would think of the school system as the most marvelous organization ever put together by the ingenuity of man to implement his dreams of progress for mankind in general — a thing to be looked at with awe and used in a spirit of deep gratitude.

We would cold-shoulder all snap-courses and all people who had a kind word for snap-courses.

We would not hold it against any individual or any group of individuals if it so happened that we were something less than whiz-kids, because we would think of whiz-kids as the best stroke of luck any nation could have.

We would go just as far as it was humanly possible to go with our education, firm in the belief that any human being who hobbles himself with lack of knowledge is utterly foolish.

We would keep our incentive to learn alive as long as anything within reach was left unlearned, even if we had to stick pins in ourselves to stay awake, because we would know — if we were back in the school generation — that the desire to learn is fully as important as the capacity to learn. The latter without the former is useless.

That is our testimonial to the importance of education at the beginning of another school year. All we can do about education now is try to encourage it with our understanding and our taxes. We cannot go back to school again. But we can do everything within our means to make sure that the school generation has every opportunity to make a better job of it than we made.

And No Consolation Prize

A Showdown On Firm Principles

One of the objections of Southerners to Northern comment on their problems over race segregation is that Northerners do not understand the problems; therefore, they should not pass judgment on them.

The same thing could be said by Northerners with equal conviction about the problems of Constitutional Law and Supreme Court procedure that have been raised by the circumstances in Little Rock.

Northerners wonder whether Southerners, except for those who try conscientiously to grasp the legal problems involved, understand why it is more important to uphold the Constitution and the Supreme Court than it is to try to accommodate and appease Southern prejudice against school integration.

In effect, the recalcitrant Southerners in this issue are arguing that the Constitution should be what they want it to seem to be, whereas their opponents are arguing that the Constitution is what the Supreme Court rules that it is, because there is no other way to maintain a government of law.

If there is to be a head-on clash between equally firm principles, the principle that the Supreme Court's authority must be upheld must be placed above any other principle in conflict with it.

If this means that Southern schools in areas where educational authority refuses to abandon segregation must remain closed, it would be a high price. But it would not be too high a price to pay for the maintenance of the principle that the Supreme Court's rulings on Constitutional law must be respected.

There has been from the beginning of this great argument one possibility of resolving the issue that has not been discussed.

This would be a proposal to repeal the key section of the 14th Amendment, which says: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the law."

It is argued by Southerners and others similarly interested in attacking the Supreme Court's authority to order school integration that this amendment has no bearing on the matter; that the amendment, itself, was improperly ratified and should not be in the Constitution.

If they really believe this, they should ask for a showdown on the 14th Amendment, in the form of a proposed amendment that would satisfy their point of view. The matter then could be cleared up for all time, in the South, in the North, in the East and in the West.

The fact is, however, that the Southerners are less concerned about the Constitution and the Supreme Court, than they are concerned about integration. They know they could not win a showdown on the 14th amendment.

That Will Be A Laugh

We should have known the zipper joke was too funny to last.

Announcement of the invention of a new "zipperless zipper" means the passing of an era in humor.

The day soon will be gone when an employe can excuse his absence from his desk with the word "zipper." Or a woman can convulse listeners with an account of her embarrassment with a "zipper" story.

Before the zipper there were countless stories of buttons failing. And of hooks and eyes becoming jammed. And way, way back, centuries ago, the caveman always got a laugh when he told about his bearskin slipping.

And now we are going to have something called "Velcro," a zipperless zipper made of two strips which stick together like burrs.

The comic possibilities when people start walking around, sitting, or bending over with nothing but a couple of synthetic burrs holding their clothing together has us howling already.

We Pulled A Boner . . .

. . .when we carelessly identified the Rev. Frederick T. Gillette Tuesday as rector of St. Stephen's Evangelical Church. It should have been St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. We hope the unintentional mistake doesn't hasten Rev. Gillette's departure for his new position in North Dakota.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The public is so suspicious as a result of alledged quiz show allegations that some fans think "I Love Lucy," "Sunrise Semester," "Zorro" and "My Little Margie" are not on the level.

There are folks who think "Shirley Temple's Story Book" is a fix and want district attorney to probe "Victory at Sea" and "Lassie." This column is loaded with hints of skullduggery:

"Investigate 'Meet The Press.' You can't convince the audience that senators are as dumb as they seem on that show. Somebody is slipping them the WRONG ANSWERS in advance. T.L.M."

"WHY ALL THE FUSS about quiz show contestants getting answers? Look at the 'westerns.' The hero always gets tipped off at rehearsal on how to meet tough questions forced on him in Indian raids.

"I was an extra on 'Wagon Train' and always knew in advance how many punches I would have to take on the chin before losing. Wyatt Earp always gets advance dope on when Doc Holliday will come up with right answer in a tight spot. Alfred K."

"LET SOMEBODY investigate Perry Mason," writes Flatbush Fred. "The district attorney in that show must have advance instructions on how to lose every case."

"How about 'Dragnet'?" K.L.M. demands. "Those sergeants' exams which Friday and Smith are always gabbing about are rigged. Smith has had all the right answers for years and is fooling nobody, except Jack Webb."

JACQUES ROMBERG writes that the commercials are fixed. He says those drawings of headache tablets going through human stomach and head are not on the up and up and asks, "Why doesn't somebody probe the deal in which the artist always comes up with hammer, arrows and dotted lines. It couldn't be accidental."

(This brings us to the TV weather forecasters. To the question, "What will tomorrow's weather be? You may have extra time if you wish," the girls give wrong answers so often that it is mighty suspicious when they give a correct one. Skulduggery may be involved. And take "What's My Line?" Aren't some of those easily penetrated disguises supplied by secret agents of the contestants?)

HOLLAND IS PRODUCING a filtertip cigar. Ya mean it's what's up front that counts in a cheroot?

Sat. Eve. Post is to accept liquor ads for first time. It's the only publication which for a couple hundred years has never whispered "Have a drink?" and has had "I never touch the stuff" as a masthead.

Ike favors Washington getting a stronger baseball club. But anybody who has watched him pitch out a first ball can cry "Look who's talking!"

Carmen De Sapio, who looks like a fairly youthful Hollywood star behind those dark glasses, is as tough and autocratic as old time Tammany bosses like Murphy.

Connecticut Safety Commission says a 10-year study shows that fight against highway injuries and death can get nowhere without help of public schools from the kindergarten up. "To develop intellectual potential of young and neglect instruction that will teach a child the important lesson of yielding to others and respecting rights is absurd," it says. Kids of today are the drivers of tomorrow and there will be a lot of highway killings if courtesy, kindness and respect for others is not hammered into heads.

Frank Hogan, New York district attorney, nominated for U.S. Senate, is a Waterbury, Conn., boy who made good in the city.

10th Amendment Of The Bill Of Rights

By David Lawrence

Those critics who have been inclined to be captious about President Eisenhower's diction—particularly the occasional disorder of some of his sentences in talking off-the-cuff at press conferences—had better take a look at one of the impromptu comments made last week by the erudite Justice Felix Frankfurter, former professor at the Harvard Law School and a master of English writing.

David Lawrence

The justice was under the same handicap as President Eisenhower. The stenographers were taking it all down verbatim and there was no chance to revise what had been once spoken.

It all happened at that extraordinary hearing before the entire Supreme Court of the United States last Thursday when the justice asked the Little Rock school board's attorney a question. Here is exactly how it appears now in the stenographic record:

"Justice Frankfurter: Mr. Butler, why aren't the two decisions of this court, the first one which laid down as a constitutional requirement that this court unanimously felt compelled to agree upon, and the second opinion recognizing that this was a change of what had been supposed to be the provisions of the Constitution, and recognizing that and the kind of life that had built under the contrary conception said, as equity has also said, you must make appropriate accommodation to the specific circumstances of the situation instead of having a procrustean bed where everybody's legs are cut off or stretched to fit the length of the bed, and who is better to decide that than the local United States judges, why isn't that a national policy?"

DESPITE THE ODD syntax, there are some novel thoughts expressed by Justice Frankfurter which are perhaps more significant than if the above sentence had been carefully edited afterwards.

When Justice Frankfurter refers to "two decisions," he has in mind the one rendered by the Supreme Court in 1954 saying that equal educational facilities in separate schools were "inherently unequal," and the second, in 1955, in which the court ordered desegregation to take effect "with all deliberate speed."

Justice Frankfurter, in referring to the second decision, speaks understandingly of the recognition by the court of the problems raised during the transition period—from segregation to non-segregation.

But it is strange to hear him say that "this was a change of what had been supposed to be the provisions of the Constitution."

The layman will wonder how any suppositious provisions could have ever been inserted in the Constitution and why suddenly what was plainly written there is disregarded by the court itself. For there is no mention of "education" or "schools" in the 14th Amendment which formed the basis for the Supreme Court's decision.

There is, on the other hand, an explicit provision, known as the 10th Amendment, which is still a part of the Bill of Rights and is also presumably a "national policy."

Under this amendment, all powers not expressly given to the national government by the Constitution itself are reserved to the states. Education has always been supposed to be one of the powers "reserved to the states."

Justice Frankfurter conceded that "you must make appropriate accommodation to the specific circumstances of the situation," and then went on to contend that these two decisions of the Supreme Court have become "a national policy."

THE WORDS "national policy" originally were not Justice Frankfurter's but those of Attorney Butler of the Little Rock school board, who said the people of Arkansas thought that during the period of delay "a national policy could definitely be established and that (new) laws could be tested so that the people would know, the people who want to obey the final word."

But Justice Frankfurter, while admitting that "national policy doesn't mean the same thing must take place in Little Rock, Ark. as in Pittsfield, Mass.," continued:

"There was a national policy and the federal courts recognized it. . . . I do not understand what is meant by saying 'Let's wait until we get a national policy' if that isn't a national policy."

Attorney Butler tried to explain that the school board was "simply faced with realities" and could not have anticipated the reaction of the public which ensued after the Supreme Court decisions.

Justice Frankfurter ignored the point that passing new laws to cope with the "desegration" problem is a constitutional right of a state and that there is a right also to test the new laws in the federal courts.

COURTS MAY NOT bow to violence, but neither may courts take away a constitutional right to try out a new law that might meet the actual requirements of the Constitution itself.

So far as the words "national policy" are concerned, it is most unfortunate to see any Supreme Court justice using them when describing Supreme Court decisions.

Court decisions are not "national policies." It has long been determined—and affirmed by Abraham Lincoln — that Supreme Court decisions are not literally the "law of the land," as is a federal statute, but simply the "law of the case."

This means that in a future case the Supreme Court might reverse itself. For it is the right of any legislature to exercise its legislative privileges by enacting new laws which in due time can be tested and perhaps be upheld by the Supreme Court.

An Affair With Ellie

By Truman Twill

Aside from the weather, which was characteristic of this grim summer's persistent rebuke to men's hopes, Labor Day was a satisfactory farewell to outdoor living for another year.

The picnic that was supposed to have been eaten on a sun-kissed knoll was eaten in an automobile, instead. Or it was eaten just outside the automobile in a Newfoundland mist, in a bone-chilling wind.

We went to the races — not the big money-jingling races attended by people with the itch to gamble, but one of the little races attended by that off-beat minority of human beings who have qualified themselves as friends of the horse.

My brother is one of these. He works with horses the way some men work at their rose gardens or their golf games. Whatever strain runs through a family that accounts for this particular affinity cropped out positively in him. He has been breeding and training gaited horses and standard - bred racing horses for many years. My Uncle George on my mother's side had it . . . but never mind.

This particular year his pride and pleasure is a three-year-old mare, Ellie, as beautiful a creature as nature ever master-pieced, with all the good instincts of her breed. Ellie is a pacer, meaning she runs on what are known as "lateral pairs" — one front foot and one rear foot on the opposite side touching the ground at the same instant.

A trotter runs with both feet on the same side touching the ground at the same instant. A galloping horse, incidentally, gets all four feet off the ground simultaneously. Galloping is a horse's most natural gait. Trotting is about half-natural. Pacing is something a horse must be taught. Nearly all pacers must wear a hobble to hold them in their acquired stride.

Ellie finished a close second in both heats of her race, which was on a track unsuitable for any racing at all. It is likely she could have won if strongly urged, but it was the consensus of her entourage that she should not be urged to over-extend herself on a bad track. This, remember, was a contest for horses, not for bettors. As far as I know, the only money on the line anywhere was the stake, amounting to a little more than $1,200.

I fell in love with Ellie. It sounds like a title for a song, but it's the truth. In the box stall, while she was being sponged and dried after the race, I noted the fact her legs were still trembling from the exertion of pacing on that soggy track, though she was breathing easily. She wanted to please her handlers. She was as tractable as she had been in the starting gate, which is a contraption mounted on an automobile that the horses nose into for a flying start. Ellie ran with her nose literally against it; some of the other horses hung back.

Sometimes, my brother drives Ellie, but on the muddy track he gave Ellie to her driver-trainer, who he thought would do a better job. He apparently did pretty well, because the driver-owner whose pacer won both heats said afterward he would rather have Ellie than his own mare, who needed to be urged.

I wouldn't mind owning Ellie, myself, except that the horse-happy strain in our family didn't crop cut in me. I'm half afraid of horses, as a matter of fact, though I wouldn't be afraid of Ellie. She's too beautiful.

Coattails Are Shorter

By James Marlow

Candidates Don't Look To Ike Now

WASHINGTON

President Eisenhower's coattails look even shorter this year.

Three times in the past—in the elections of 1952, 1954 and 1956—Republican candidates for Congress rode his coattails as hard as they could.

All three times Eisenhower was riding a wave of personal popularity but only once was he able to help his party to victory.

This year, with Republicans desperately anxious to regain control of Congress, he figures to be of even less help than before.

For two reasons:

1. He's been coming more and more under criticism.

2. He's a lame-duck President—he's finishing out his second and last term because, by law, he can't run again.

A lame duck in any political office traditionally has an ebbing influence.

So it's questionable how much help he can give the Republican congressional candidates in 1958 or how much help they want from him.

It still isn't clear how much campaigning he intends to do if any. This might be taken as a sign of how the wind blows:

Last March 2, Chairman Andrew F. Schoeppel of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee said he hoped Eisenhower would be active in the campaign but added: "I don't think any president can go out and give his blessing to any one man and have that the contributing factor. It can be helpful factor . . . but in the last campaign (in 1956) in some of these instances it didn't turn out so well."

Schoeppel said it would be detrimental in some states for Republicans to base their campaign support on Eisenhower's programs.

He said some GOP candidates "simply are not going to take the same position as the President or his advisers" on some questions, like foreign aid and trade.

Republicans—including their national chairman, Meade Alcorn — have predicted they'd win control of the House but admitted the Senate fight is tough.

For Alcorn this seemed to indicate a rise in spirits since last April.

Then he was admitting he didn't think his party could win the Senate and predicted only a bare majority in the House.

In 1952—when Eisenhower was the enormously popular war hero and voters were fed up with 20 years of the Democrats—he not only won himself but swept his party along with him to control of Congress.

Not so in 1954. He wasn't running that year but he campaigned across the country for the Republican congressional candidates. It wasn't good enough. The Democrats took over Congress.

In 1956 there was reason to expect a different result. Eisenhower, still immensely popular, was running for his second term and he campaigned as hard as he could after a heart attack and a serious intestinal operation.

It didn't work. He won for himself overwhelmingly. But again the Republicans lost control of Congress to the Democrats.

This year, as a lame duck under growing criticism, there's no reason to think he'd be any more effective than in 1954 or 1956 in carrying his party to victory.

Faith Of A Virginian

By Raymond Moley

Those who write for the press are handicapped by the immediacy of the issues which we discuss and also by the speed with which we must meet deadlines. But once in a long while the press produces basic philosophy clothed in classic phrases.

One such instance was an editorial which appeared in the Richmond (Va.) News-Leader of July 30 under the title, "Why The Fight Goes On." It was inserted in the Congressional Record under date of Aug. 14 by Sen. Harry Byrd.

Its author is James J. Kilpatrick whose book, "The Sovereign States," is itself a classic statement of the South's position in the present constitutional crisis.

"What is the State fighting for?

"Three things: (1) To preserve a constitutional position that ought never to be voluntarily surrendered. (2) To preserve the ethnic and social structure of the South against forces that would destroy it. (3) To preserve the greatest possible educational opportunities for the greatest number of children, white and Negro alike.

"Those are the state's aims. They are the only aims. But it should be understood that meeting those aims demands a great deal of the people of Virginia.

"We are asked to rise above those interests which are present, concrete and immediate, and to dedicate ourselves instead to goals that, to a degree, are abstract and remote.

"We are asked to think earnestly upon the Constituton of the United States and the structure of the American Republic, and these are big things, hard to catch hold of. . . The constitutional position taken by Virginia is simple, direct, unambiguous.

"Virginia entered the union in 1788, at a time when she could have remained forever apart, upon certain clear understandings: This was to be a federal union of sovereign States, in which the states would delegate certain limited powers to the federal government they were creating; all other powers, apart from those prohibitions to the states by the Constitution itself, were to be retained by the states individually. This structure of the union was in no way altered by the War of 1861-65.

"After the war, when the 14th Amendment was forced upon the South northern legislators inquired what effect the amendment would have upon the maintenance by the States of racially separate schools.

"Proponents of the amendment agreed that the amendment was not intended to prohibit this power to the States: "The power therefore was to be reserved to them. . .

"Virginia's position is not limited to the school matter only. If the court may usurp power so drastically in this instance, we have said, then the court may usurp power in every instance. The concept of a Federal Union of States held together by checks and balances will be lost altogether. . . This constitutional fight is of primary importance. It must not be abandoned."

How About Old Folks?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

School bells ring out this month for a record 45 million young Americans from the kindergartens through colleges.

But a strong case could be made out for the theory that they are ringing for the wrong people.

School now is that period between the mumps of childhood and the lumps you get when you have to start earning your own living.

So much to learn in so short a time — for the average student spends less than a fourth of his life in the classrooms. The wilderness of the multiplication table gives way to the jungle of algebra. And even then has one found out the things that really count?

The trouble with formal schooling is that it ends with most people when their real education begins. There is no bridge between the two—the vast library of books, and the vaster library of living.

One teaches knowledge, the other can—and should—teach wisdom. It is unfortunate, but true, that few people get wise merely by reading.

The schooling years now are roughly from 5 to 22. After that a man spends less time exploring what the world knows — and more time finding out what he has to put up with. One of the oddities of the educational process is that he will do more real growing up in one year of kindergarten—and, later, in one month of marriage—than he will in four years at college.

Seeing the bright-eyed "hopes of tomorrow" go gaily, or mournfully, back to their classes gives many of us middle-aged dupes of today a twinge of regret.

We know a feeling of envy. We like youth itself, is too splendid a gift to waste on the young. They don't get enough mileage out of it.

When you get right down to it, who really need education most? Not the young. They are still largely helpless and harmless.

The people who tear the world apart with hate, prejudice and fear are the middle-aged and elderly. They make war, both hot and cold, and break peace — if any. It is their massed ignorance that threatens the safety of mankind in a perilous time.

Much of the knowledge they acquired in the classroom has become outdated by the rapid march of science. They have become Neanderthal without knowing it. They need new facts, wider knowledge, on which to base decisions growing ever more critical—because mistakes are growing ever more costly.

Perhaps after 40, every man and woman should be required by law to take a sabbatical year every decade and go back to the classroom and face new ideas.

It might help if the school bells rang for the middle-aged and the elderly, as well as the young. If they studied together, they might even learn to make a better world together.

Isn't it worth trying?

Opportunity Knocks Every Year

Instead of telling the school generation how grateful it should be for the educational opportunity that knocks every year and how stupid it is not to take advantage of it, perhaps the post-school generation should tell how grateful it would be for another chance.

Most of us who look back at our education, instead of having the privilege of looking forward to it, know we did not make the most of our opportunities. For one reason or another, we let something get in the way.

If we had another chance to go to school, knowing what we know now, we would let nothing get in the way of the opportunity to make the most of whatever aptitude we had.

We would always put education first and foremost.

We would soak up information like a sponge and try to retain it.

We would think of our teachers as people paid to help us improve our resources and develop our capacities, never as persons who bothered and annoyed us by interfering with our personal ideas of behavior.

We would think of the school system as the most marvelous organization ever put together by the ingenuity of man to implement his dreams of progress for mankind in general — a thing to be looked at with awe and used in a spirit of deep gratitude.

We would cold-shoulder all snap-courses and all people who had a kind word for snap-courses.

We would not hold it against any individual or any group of individuals if it so happened that we were something less than whiz-kids, because we would think of whiz-kids as the best stroke of luck any nation could have.

We would go just as far as it was humanly possible to go with our education, firm in the belief that any human being who hobbles himself with lack of knowledge is utterly foolish.

We would keep our incentive to learn alive as long as anything within reach was left unlearned, even if we had to stick pins in ourselves to stay awake, because we would know — if we were back in the school generation — that the desire to learn is fully as important as the capacity to learn. The latter without the former is useless.

That is our testimonial to the importance of education at the beginning of another school year. All we can do about education now is try to encourage it with our understanding and our taxes. We cannot go back to school again. But we can do everything within our means to make sure that the school generation has every opportunity to make a better job of it than we made.

A Showdown On Firm Principles

One of the objections of Southerners to Northern comment on their problems over race segregation is that Northerners do not understand the problems; therefore, they should not pass judgment on them.

The same thing could be said by Northerners with equal conviction about the problems of Constitutional Law and Supreme Court procedure that have been raised by the circumstances in Little Rock.

Northerners wonder whether Southerners, except for those who try conscientiously to grasp the legal problems involved, understand why it is more important to uphold the Constitution and the Supreme Court than it is to try to accommodate and appease Southern prejudice against school integration.

In effect, the recalcitrant Southerners in this issue are arguing that the Constitution should be what they want it to seem to be, whereas their opponents are arguing that the Constitution is what the Supreme Court rules that it is, because there is no other way to maintain a government of law.

If there is to be a head-on clash between equally firm principles, the principle that the Supreme Court's authority must be upheld must be placed above any other principle in conflict with it.

If this means that Southern schools in areas where educational authority refuses to abandon segregation must remain closed, it would be a high price. But it would not be too high a price to pay for the maintenance of the principle that the Supreme Court's rulings on Constitutional law must be respected.

There has been from the beginning of this great argument one possibility of resolving the issue that has not been discussed.

This would be a proposal to repeal the key section of the 14th Amendment, which says: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the law."

It is argued by Southerners and others similarly interested in attacking the Supreme Court's authority to order school integration that this amendment has no bearing on the matter; that the amendment, itself, was improperly ratified and should not be in the Constitution.

If they really believe this, they should ask for a showdown on the 14th Amendment, in the form of a proposed amendment that would satisfy their point of view. The matter then could be cleared up for all time, in the South, in the North, in the East and in the West.

The fact is, however, that the Southerners are less concerned about the Constitution and the Supreme Court, than they are concerned about integration. They know they could not win a showdown on the 14th amendment.

That Will Be A Laugh

We should have known the zipper joke was too funny to last.

Announcement of the invention of a new "zipperless zipper" means the passing of an era in humor.

The day soon will be gone when an employe can excuse his absence from his desk with the word "zipper." Or a woman can convulse listeners with an account of her embarrassment with a "zipper" story.

Before the zipper there were countless stories of buttons failing. And of hooks and eyes becoming jammed. And way, way back, centuries ago, the caveman always got a laugh when he told about his bearskin slipping.

The Once Over

The public is so suspicious as a result of alledged quiz show allegations that some fans think "I Love Lucy," "Sunrise Semester," "Zorro" and "My Little Margie" are not on the level.

There are folks who think "Shirley Temple's Story Book" is a fix and want district attorney to probe "Victory at Sea" and "Lassie." This column is loaded with hints of skullduggery:

"Investigate 'Meet The Press.' You can't convince the audience that senators are as dumb as they seem on that show. Somebody is slipping them the WRONG ANSWERS in advance. T.L.M."

"WHY ALL THE FUSS about quiz show contestants getting answers? Look at the 'westerns.' The hero always gets tipped off at rehearsal on how to meet tough questions forced on him in Indian raids.

"I was an extra on 'Wagon Train' and always knew in advance how many punches I would have to take on the chin before losing. Wyatt Earp always gets advance dope on when Doc Holliday will come up with right answer in a tight spot. Alfred K."

"LET SOMEBODY investigate Perry Mason," writes Flatbush Fred. "The district attorney in that show must have advance instructions on how to lose every case."

"How about 'Dragnet'?" K.L.M. demands. "Those sergeants' exams which Friday and Smith are always gabbing about are rigged. Smith has had all the right answers for years and is fooling nobody, except Jack Webb."

JACQUES ROMBERG writes that the commercials are fixed. He says those drawings of headache tablets going through human stomach and head are not on the up and up and asks, "Why doesn't somebody probe the deal in which the artist always comes up with hammer, arrows and dotted lines. It couldn't be accidental."

(This brings us to the TV weather forecasters. To the question, "What will tomorrow's weather be? You may have extra time if you wish," the girls give wrong answers so often that it is mighty suspicious when they give a correct one. Skulduggery may be involved. And take "What's My Line?" Aren't some of those easily penetrated disguises supplied by secret agents of the contestants?)

HOLLAND IS PRODUCING a filtertip cigar. Ya mean it's what's up front that counts in a cheroot?

Carmen De Sapio, who looks like a fairly youthful Hollywood star behind those dark glasses, is as tough and autocratic as old time Tammany bosses like Murphy.

Connecticut Safety Commission says a 10-year study shows that fight against highway injuries and death can get nowhere without help of public schools from the kindergarten up. "To develop intellectual potential of young and neglect instruction that will teach a child the important lesson of yielding to others and respecting rights is absurd," it says. Kids of today are the drivers of tomorrow and there will be a lot of highway killings if courtesy, kindness and respect for others is not hammered into heads.

And No Consolation Prize

10th Amendment Of The Bill Of Rights

By David Lawrence

Those critics who have been inclined to be captious about President Eisenhower's diction—particularly the occasional disorder of some of his sentences in talking off-the-cuff at press conferences—had better take a look at one of the impromptu comments made last week by the erudite Justice Felix Frankfurter, former professor at the Harvard Law School and a master of English writing.

David Lawrence

The justice was under the same handicap as President Eisenhower. The stenographers were taking it all down verbatim and there was no chance to revise what had been once spoken.

It all happened at that extraordinary hearing before the entire Supreme Court of the United States last Thursday when the justice asked the Little Rock school board's attorney a question. Here is exactly how it appears now in the stenographic record:

"Justice Frankfurter: Mr. Butler, why aren't the two decisions of this court, the first one which laid down as a constitutional requirement that this court unanimously felt compelled to agree upon, and the second opinion recognizing that this was a change of what had been supposed to be the provisions of the Constitution, and recognizing that and the kind of life that had built under the contrary conception said, as equity has also said, you must make appropriate accommodation to the specific circumstances of the situation instead of having a procrustean bed where everybody's legs are cut off or stretched to fit the length of the bed, and who is better to decide that than the local United States judges, why isn't that a national policy?"

DESPITE THE ODD syntax, there are some novel thoughts expressed by Justice Frankfurter which are perhaps more significant than if the above sentence had been carefully edited afterwards.

When Justice Frankfurter refers to "two decisions," he has in mind the one rendered by the Supreme Court in 1954 saying that equal educational facilities in separate schools were "inherently unequal," and the second, in 1955, in which the court ordered desegregation to take effect "with all deliberate speed."

Justice Frankfurter, in referring to the second decision, speaks understandingly of the recognition by the court of the problems raised during the transition period—from segregation to non-segregation.

But it is strange to hear him say that "this was a change of what had been supposed to be the provisions of the Constitution."

The layman will wonder how any suppositious provisions could have ever been inserted in the Constitution and why suddenly what was plainly written there is disregarded by the court itself. For there is no mention of "education" or "schools" in the 14th Amendment which formed the basis for the Supreme Court's decision.

There is, on the other hand, an explicit provision, known as the 10th Amendment, which is still a part of the Bill of Rights and is also presumably a "national policy."

Under this amendment, all powers not expressly given to the national government by the Constitution itself are reserved to the states. Education has always been supposed to be one of the powers "reserved to the states."

Justice Frankfurter conceded that "you must make appropriate accommodation to the specific circumstances of the situation," and then went on to contend that these two decisions of the Supreme Court have become "a national policy."

THE WORDS "national policy" originally were not Justice Frankfurter's but those of Attorney Butler of the Little Rock school board, who said the people of Arkansas thought that during the period of delay "a national policy could definitely be established and that (new) laws could be tested so that the people would know, the people who want to obey the final word."

But Justice Frankfurter, while admitting that "national policy doesn't mean the same thing must take place in Little Rock, Ark. as in Pittsfield, Mass.," continued:

"There was a national policy and the federal courts recognized it. . . . I do not understand what is meant by saying 'Let's wait until we get a national policy' if that isn't a national policy."

Attorney Butler tried to explain that the school board was "simply faced with realities" and could not have anticipated the reaction of the public which ensued after the Supreme Court decisions.

Justice Frankfurter ignored the point that passing new laws to cope with the "desegration" problem is a constitutional right of a state and that there is a right also to test the new laws in the federal courts.

COURTS MAY NOT bow to violence, but neither may courts take away a constitutional right to try out a new law that might meet the actual requirements of the Constitution itself.

So far as the words "national policy" are concerned, it is most unfortunate to see any Supreme Court justice using them when describing Supreme Court decisions.

Court decisions are not "national policies." It has long been determined—and affirmed by Abraham Lincoln — that Supreme Court decisions are not literally the "law of the land," as is a federal statute, but simply the "law of the case."

This means that in a future case the Supreme Court might reverse itself. For it is the right of any legislature to exercise its legislative privileges by enacting new laws which in due time can be tested and perhaps be upheld by the Supreme Court.

It can be helpful factor . . . but in the last campaign (in 1956) in some of these instances it didn't turn out so well."

Schoeppel said it would be detrimental in some states for Republicans to base their campaign support on Eisenhower's programs.

He said some GOP candidates "simply are not going to take the same position as the President or his advisers" on some questions, like foreign aid and trade.

Republicans—including their national chairman, Meade Alcorn — have predicted they'd win control of the House but admitted the Senate fight is tough.

For Alcorn this seemed to indicate a rise in spirits since last April.

Then he was admitting he didn't think his party could win the Senate and predicted only a bare majority in the House.

In 1952—when Eisenhower was the enormously popular war hero and voters were fed up with 20 years of the Democrats—he not only won himself but swept his party along with him to control of Congress.

Not so in 1954. He wasn't running that year but he campaigned across the country for the Republican congressional candidates. It wasn't good enough. The Democrats took over Congress.

In 1956 there was reason to expect a different result. Eisenhower, still immensely popular, was running for his second term and he campaigned as hard as he could after a heart attack and a serious intestinal operation.

It didn't work. He won for himself overwhelmingly. But again the Republicans lost control of Congress to the Democrats.

This year, as a lame duck under growing criticism, there's no reason to think he'd be any more effective than in 1954 or 1956 in carrying his party to victory.

Faith Of A Virginian

By Raymond Moley

Those who write for the press are handicapped by the immediacy of the issues which we discuss and also by the speed with which we must meet deadlines. But once in a long while the press produces basic philosophy clothed in classic phrases.

One such instance was an editorial which appeared in the Richmond (Va.) News-Leader of July 30 under the title, "Why The Fight Goes On." It was inserted in the Congressional Record under date of Aug. 14 by Sen. Harry Byrd.

Its author is James J. Kilpatrick whose book, "The Sovereign States," is itself a classic statement of the South's position in the present constitutional crisis.

"What is the State fighting for?

"Three things: (1) To preserve a constitutional position that ought never to be voluntarily surrendered. (2) To preserve the ethnic and social structure of the South against forces that would destroy it. (3) To preserve the greatest possible educational opportunities for the greatest number of children, white and Negro alike.

"Those are the state's aims. They are the only aims. But it should be understood that meeting those aims demands a great deal of the people of Virginia.

"We are asked to rise above those interests which are present, concrete and immediate, and to dedicate ourselves instead to goals that, to a degree, are abstract and remote.

"We are asked to think earnestly upon the Constituton of the United States and the structure of the American Republic, and these are big things, hard to catch hold of. . . The constitutional position taken by Virginia is simple, direct, unambiguous.

"Virginia entered the union in 1788, at a time when she could have remained forever apart, upon certain clear understandings: This was to be a federal union of sovereign States, in which the states would delegate certain limited powers to the federal government they were creating; all other powers, apart from those prohibitions to the states by the Constitution itself, were to be retained by the states individually. This structure of the union was in no way altered by the War of 1861-65.

"After the war, when the 14th Amendment was forced upon the South northern legislators inquired what effect the amendment would have upon the maintenance by the States of racially separate schools.

"Proponents of the amendment agreed that the amendment was not intended to prohibit this power to the States: "The power therefore was to be reserved to them. . .

"Virginia's position is not limited to the school matter only. If the court may usurp power so drastically in this instance, we have said, then the court may usurp power in every instance. The concept of a Federal Union of States held together by checks and balances will be lost altogether. . . This constitutional fight is of primary importance. It must not be abandoned."

How About Old Folks?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

School bells ring out this month for a record 45 million young Americans from the kindergartens through colleges.

But a strong case could be made out for the theory that they are ringing for the wrong people.

School now is that period between the mumps of childhood and the lumps you get when you have to start earning your own living.

So much to learn in so short a time — for the average student spends less than a fourth of his life in the classrooms. The wilderness of the multiplication table gives way to the jungle of algebra. And even then has one found out the things that really count?

The trouble with formal schooling is that it ends with most people when their real education begins. There is no bridge between the two—the vast library of books, and the vaster library of living.

One teaches knowledge, the other can—and should—teach wisdom. It is unfortunate, but true, that few people get wise merely by reading.

The schooling years now are roughly from 5 to 22. After that a man spends less time exploring what the world knows — and more time finding out what he has to put up with. One of the oddities of the educational process is that he will do more real growing up in one year of kindergarten—and, later, in one month of marriage—than he will in four years at college.

Seeing the bright-eyed "hopes of tomorrow" go gaily, or mournfully, back to their classes gives many of us middle-aged dupes of today a twinge of regret.

We know a feeling of envy. We like youth itself, is too splendid a gift to waste on the young. They don't get enough mileage out of it.

When you get right down to it, who really need education most? Not the young. They are still largely helpless and harmless.

The people who tear the world apart with hate, prejudice and fear are the middle-aged and elderly. They make war, both hot and cold, and break peace — if any. It is their massed ignorance that threatens the safety of mankind in a perilous time.

Much of the knowledge they acquired in the classroom has become outdated by the rapid march of science. They have become Neanderthal without knowing it. They need new facts, wider knowledge, on which to base decisions growing ever more critical—because mistakes are growing ever more costly.

Perhaps after 40, every man and woman should be required by law to take a sabbatical year every decade and go back to the classroom and face new ideas.

It might help if the school bells rang for the middle-aged and the elderly, as well as the young. If they studied together, they might even learn to make a better world together.

Isn't it worth trying?

Rotary Hears Attorney-General

Saxbe Outlines His Duties

Ohio Atty. Gen. William Saxbe outlined his duties in an address on "The Attorney's General Office and You" at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel. Some 70 attended.

A former resident of Mechanicsburg and graduate of Ohio State University at Columbus, Saxbe also spoke to Salem residents at a public breakfast at the Timberlane's Restaurant yesterday morning, and at the annual corn and steak roast of the Columbiana County Township Trustees and Clerks Association last night at the Winona Methodist Church.

He joined with Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon, a classmate while at Ohio State, and Francis Wallace of Bellaire, Republican candidate for congress, in visits to other local communities yesterday afternoon in their district tour as a candidate for new term.

Saxbe cited among duties performed by his office questions on land acquisitions for the State Highway Department, rulings on unemployment compensation business, and settling penalties for sales tax violators.

Saxbe termed the state's highway projects as "the greatest road building program in history," stemming from "an avalanche of federal funds" and putting Ohio "far above many other states in highway construction."

Concerning the problems of land acquisition for the new roads, he said "it is not a job that I like and anytime the right of eminent domain is wielded, extreme caution must be used."

Saxbe said the highway department does all negotiations for land, first determining the exact location of the center line for the proposed highway, then employing a consulting engineer who does the necessary surveying and prepares plans for the contract.

"Land lawyers then go to work, arranging for appraisers—experts in their various fields—who then value the property through which the highway must go.

"An offer is then made to the land owner," he said, "unlike the early dealings of "take-it-or-leave-it basis."

If the landowner rejects the bid, the state files a condemnation notice and a certificate of necessity and can actually take the land before the value is determined.

"When the land is taken this way, it is unpleasant, and that is where the Attorney General steps into the picture, appearing in behalf of the highway department."

He said there are a dozen lawyers in his office who do nothing but try such cases where court action is necessary.

"Many people think that the rules of evidence used in a land trial are unfair but it is the same type as used in any law suit," he pointed out.

"Landowners can compare the price of a neighbor's land or last week's offer while bargaining for a better deal but only the opinion of a qualified expert on the worth of the land counts in court.

"After a jury hears opinions of experts on both sides, a verdict is returned and if the amount is considered ridiculous, an appeal may be filed or a judge may make his own ruling," Saxbe said.

The state's expansive highway building program is "very popular because our people are demanding better roads for speed," he said.

Saxbe discussed other work of his office, such as making rulings to wardens of the state's prisons, but he added that his office "prosecutes no one," as this is left entirely to prosecutors at the county level.

Saxbe pointed out that delinquent sales tax claims make up the greatest volume of business of the state's largest law office. He listed several rules used in dealing with violators.

The office handles about $4½ million yearly in all types of claims.

A total of 757 opinions were handed down by the office in the last 18 months on questions asked by county prosecutors. He said the opinion of the state's attorney general "has the force of law in Ohio."

He was introduced by Richard Beatty, program chairman. Beatty also introduced Mrs Saxbe, who is accompanying her husband on his election campaign.

Only Few Algerians Defy Paris Curfew

PARIS (AP)—Police said only a handful of Algerians ventured onto the streets of Paris Tuesday night in defiance of new curfew restrictions.

It was the first night of a 9:30 p. m. - 5:30 a. m. restriction on North Africans aimed at halting a new wave of violence by Algerian nationalist terrorists.

There were no reports of terrorists activity in the city.

Charon, in ancient mythology, ferried the souls of the dead across the River Styz.

Chamber's Board To Fill 3 Posts At Session Tuesday

A new vice president and two members for the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce will be elected when the board meets Tuesday at 4 p. m. for the first time since June.

A Chamber vice president will be named to succeed E. A. Higgins, former area manager of the Ohio Power Co. here who was transferred to a similar post in Portsmouth. The seats on the board were held by Raymond J. Parker, a former official of the First National Bank who has taken a post with the Liberty National Bank in Fremont, and Richard Welch, formerly plant manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. exchange here who was transferred to a new job in Columbus.

The board has not met since early June. It customarily skips the July and August sessions each year because of the summer vacation season.

The board will hear a review of summer activities of the Chamber and a report of the executive committee, which held an interim meeting.

Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh, president of the Business & Professional Women's Club, was named today to make an all - expense trip to Detroit Oct. 8-9 as part of a nationwide opinion poll on a new auto model arranged by Dr. George Gallup and his research organization.

Earlier, BPW was chosen from a list of the five East Liverpool service clubs as the organization that would send a representative to Detroit. Choice of the member was left with the club.

City High School Band To Wear New Attire

The East Liverpool High School band members will show off their new blue and silver uniforms for the first time locally in the "Buy American" parade tonight, Don Allen, director, reported.

The 69-piece band plus 7 majorettes and drum major appeared at Kennywood Park Saturday in the royal blue uniforms trimmed in silver, but tonight will be the first opportunity city residents will have to view the attire.

The uniforms are similar in style to the former dress, but have braids across the front of the jackets instead of lapels. The outfits, which cost a total of $5,500, were obtained by the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers from various fund - raising projects.

Allen said the band members and staff express appreciation to the band mothers and to those who contributed to the projects.

Sawyer Wins Governor Nod

Nevada Nominates Democratic Lawyer

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Grant Sawyer, a young district attorney from the cow country, won the Democratic nomination for Nevada governor in Tuesday's primary balloting.

Still lacking is a decision on whether Reno surgeon Fred Anderson, 51, or Las Vegas City Atty. Howard Cannon, 46, was the Democrats' choice to oppose incumbent Republican Sen. George Malone, 68, in the November general election.

Malone was unopposed in the Republican primary, as was Gov. Charles Russell, who seeks a third term.

With roughly 90 per cent of the Democratic ballots counted in the state, the total were:

Governor: Sawyer, 18,796, Atty. Gen. Harvey Dickerson of Las Vegas, 11,069, Atty. George Franklin of Las Vegas, 8,546, and William Pate, a Reno unknown, 417.

Senate: Anderson, 19,899 Cannon, 18,334.

Sawyer, 39, of Elko whipped the two well-known Las Vegas men in the governor's race and did it in the face of stiff opposition from Reno financier E. L. Cord.

Cord, millionaire Republican Norman Biltz and a number of other wealthy Nevadans threw full support behind Dickerson for the nomination.

Ace, 100-Word Mina, Dies But Will Be Replaced

School children who enjoyed "talking" to Ace will have another bird to entertain them soon, according to Jack Horsley.

The 3-year-old Myna that attracted so much attention with his wolf whistle and extensive vocabulary in the office of the Horsley Studio on Broadway died last week, apparently from an insecticide that he came in contact with in some manner.

Ace had mastered about 100 words under the patient tutelage of Mr. and Mrs. Horsley and he amused 20 to 30 children a day as they stopped to say hello to the bird on their way to and from school.

And Ace probably knew as many or more words than some of his younger admirers. Mr. and Mrs. Horsley had him speaking clearly about three months after they obtained Ace, hand - feeding him when he was a birdlet.

"You're absolutely preposterous" was one of his phrases that always left the children — and adults — laughing and one of his longest sentences was "My name is Ace and I am a Myna bird."

Horsley had another Myna that lived about two years but Ace was the smartest. With good health, they live about 35 years. Common in India and Southeast Asia, they are related to the starling and the grackle, which resembles a blackbird.

They plan to purchase another soon and start training it. So along about Christmas time the children will find another voluble friend in the Horsley cage.

Officer Kidnaped, Shot In Face By Man, Woman

GREYBULL, Wyo. (AP) — A Greybull patrolman was abducted in his police cruiser and shot in the face Tuesday night by a man and woman who fled in a stolen car when Police Chief Ted Olson closed in on them.

Glen Coxen, about 55, the patrolman, was critically wounded and rushed by ambulance to Billings, Mont.

More than 50 policemen and volunteers and a helicopter today were searching a rugged area near the Greybull airport. Dep. Sheriff Roy Price said it was believed the couple may be hiding in the region. The area was surrounded by officers Tuesday night but no search was started until daylight.

Price said searchers reported no immediate success.

Olson gave this account:

Olson, off duty and unarmed, was cruising in his personal car when he first spotted the couple transferring the contents of a stolen car into a second vehicle.

He summoned Coxen. Together, they drove to where the cars were parked. The couple offered no resistance and Olson told Coxen to return the man and woman to the police station.

When they failed to arrive at the police station within a reasonable time, Olson started a search. He found the car and rammed into it.

The woman had Coxen's gun. She pointed it at Olson, who began to wrestle with her in an effort to retrieve it. The man rammed a .32 revolver into Olson's ribs.

"I've got a gun and got you covered," Olson quoted him.

Then he fired one shot at Olson and missed.

Olson took cover behind his own car. The man fired two more shots and missed. At this point, Coxen attempted to get the gun away from the woman. A shot was fired, and Coxen was struck in the face.

Boy Beaten Up, Run Over 3 Times With Bike By Boys

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)— Robert Skinner Jr., an 8-year-old Dayton boy was beaten, run over three times by a bicycle and dragged by his feet down a railroad track Tuesday.

Robert, attacked by two other Dayton youths, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital in serious condition.

The boy told police he argued with two other boys, ages 10 and 12, over the possession of a B-B gun which he had found. He said he was going to trade the gun to the older boys for a slingshot, a nickel and a rubber knife.

Police said the boys admitted the attack, but officers said the reason for the argument has not been made clear.

Hospital officials said the victim's nose was amputated and he suffered from fractured ribs and internal injuries. They said his entire body is bruised.

Truck And Car Collide On Route 30 At Lisbon

Minor damage resulted in a collision between a car and pickup truck on Route 30 just south of the Lisbon village limits Tuesday morning, the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

The pickup truck, owned by the Boy Scouts, was driven by Kenneth R. Letzkus, 23, of Salem R. D. 3, who made a left turn into a driveway as a car driven by Joseph Drother, 51, of Mentor attempted to pass, officers said.

"La Gioconda," the opera by Ponchienelli, was first performed in Milan, Italy in 1876. It is a sorrowful story of a lovely street singer.

Sawyer Wins Governor Nod

Nevada Nominates Democratic Lawyer

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Grant Sawyer, a young district attorney from the cow country, won the Democratic nomination for Nevada governor in Tuesday's primary balloting.

Still lacking is a decision on whether Reno surgeon Fred Anderson, 51, or Las Vegas City Atty. Howard Cannon, 46, was the Democrats' choice to oppose incumbent Republican Sen. George Malone, 68, in the November general election.

Malone was unopposed in the Republican primary, as was Gov. Charles Russell, who seeks a third term.

With roughly 90 per cent of the Democratic ballots counted in the state, the total were:

Governor: Sawyer, 18,796, Atty. Gen. Harvey Dickerson of Las Vegas, 11,069, Atty. George Franklin of Las Vegas, 8,546 and William Pate, a Reno unknown, 417.

Senate: Anderson, 19,899 Cannon, 18,334.

Sawyer, 39, of Elko whipped the two well-known Las Vegas men in the governor's race and did it in the face of stiff opposition from Reno financier E. L. Cord.

Cord, millionaire Republican Norman Biltz and a number of other wealthy Nevadans threw full support behind Dickerson for the nomination.

Ace, 100-Word Mina, Dies But Will Be Replaced

School children who enjoyed "talking" to Ace will have another bird to entertain them soon, according to Jack Horsley.

The 3-year-old Myna that attracted so much attention with his wolf whistle and extensive vocabulary in the office of the Horsley Studio on Broadway died last week, apparently from an insecticide that he came in contact with in some manner.

Ace had mastered about 100 words under the patient tutelage of Mr. and Mrs. Horsley and he amused 20 to 30 children a day as they stopped to say hello to the bird on their way to and from school.

And Ace probably knew as many or more words than some of his younger admirers. Mr. and Mrs. Horsley had him speaking clearly about three months after they obtained Ace, hand - feeding him when he was a birdlet.

"You're absolutely preposterous" was one of his phrases that always left the children — and adults — laughing and one of his longest sentences was "My name is Ace and I am a Myna bird."

Petition Filed By Wellsville Street Group

Householders Seek One-Way Traffic For 15th St. Stretch

At Wellsville City Council meeting Tuesday night, a petition of 58 residents of 15th St. requesting one-way traffic, was referred to William Robinson, safety-service director.

He was instructed to make an hourly traffic survey of the street from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. to determine for Council the number of trucks using the street and whether most traffic moves north or south.

George Mackall of 17th St. and Buckeye Ave. said his children use the street and recommended that the speed limit of 25 miles per hour be enforced.

A letter from the Trades and Labor Council in East Liverpool invited city official, all fraternal organizations and the firemen department to take part in the Buy American Parade tonight at 7.

Councilman Ancel Moore, chairman of the street and light committee, gave his report and asked that the director clean the 1st St. sewers, cut weeds in town and along highways and clean and repair Lisbon St. from 3rd to 4th Sts.

He was also asked to contact the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. and the Ohio Power Co. to see if they could remove a tree on 1st St. which endangers their lines and the lives of residents.

An estimate was received on the prepared widening of Wells Hollow Rd. from Gus C. Klavuhn, who asked $550 to grade and slag. He did not specify the length or width of the area and it was referred to the Board of Control, which includes Mayor William S. Shoub and the safety - service director to let the contract when they obtain proper specifications.

Claims of James R. Medley of Anderson Ave. for $450 and John Brown of Danbury Ave. for $50 for storm damage were referred to the claims committee and Atty. William Bush, city solicitor, to see whether the city is liable.

The situation in the Central Park area, caused by the Sterling China Co. dumping rubbish and not properly covering it, was referred to the property committee. It will check the property line to see if the dumping is within the city.

The request of Kenneth Rosenbaum of Peace Valley Rd. for water service was approved under the supervision of the director and at the property owner's expense.

Council received $3,900 from the Ohio Edison Co. for easements over property for power lines.

Council referred to the finance committee the possibility of adding enough to pay off $4,000 worth of bonds loaned the reuse department by the water department.

Council asked Kenneth Bell, clerk, to write the Wellsville Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Wellsville Key Club, thanking them for painting city street signs and the Jaycees for the observance of Labor Day.

Mayor Shoub's monthly statement for August for fines and fees collected showed a total of $2,262.05

Myron Weiss, president, was absent.

Council will meet Sept. 16 to hear a report on the proposed auxiliary water line from the reservoir to 15th St. Persons interested should mail their opinions to Councilman J. Frederick Russell, chairman of the water committee.

BOOSTERS DONATE STAND. Presentation of keys to this $4,500 concession stand at Newell's Memorial Athletic Field was made by the Boosters Club to the Band Parents Tuesday night. The white brick building was completed by Booster members with donated labor and materials and was erected in memory of the late Sidney C. Porter, formerly associated with the Globe Brick Co. Lester Anderson, Booster Club president, is shown turning over the keys to Mrs. Mae Hupp, Band Parents president. A plaque will be placed on the building later in memory of Mr. Porter. During the ceremony, several selections were played by the Wells High School Band and refreshments were served by the parents.

Half-day session was held yesterday and a full schedule started today.

Wellsville Schools Show Gain In Pupils

With an increased attendance already listed, Wellsville public schools expected additional pupils to report today, the first full day for classes.

Supt. S. E. Daw said the enrollment is 1,725, or 25 more than enrolled in 1957.

The superintendent said 561 pupils were registered at the High School and 294 in Daw Junior High.

The grade school enrollments were McKinley, 95; Garfield, 375, and MacDonald, 400. There was a heavy enrollment in the first grade at Garfield but the number of first graders at McKinley dropped off.

Supt. Daw said it will take several days before the true figure is known.

Wellsville schools opened Tuesday morning with a half-day schedule and a teachers' meeting was held yesterday afternoon.

Southern Local Schools Enroll 1,241 First Day

The start of classes in Southern Local District showed enrollment close to what had been expected with 1,241 students attending this morning.

Jack Baker, executive head, said total enrollment at Salineville high School and grade school is about 600. The registration at the grade school was 355.

Fairview School reported 180 pupils, Highlandtown 166, and No. 16 School 170. Wayne School, where 125 were expected, had not yet reported.

Enrollment figures for Chester schools today amounted to 847 at Central, 318 at the high school, 131 at Washington, and 101 at Grandview.

At Newell, the 275 enrolled at Wells High School numbered about 8 less than for 1957 while Jefferson School has 460 pupils, an increase of 27 over last term

New Cumberland High School lists 366 pupils while 521 are attending elementary grades. Full-day of classes are scheduled Thursday.

3,350 Students Seen In 3 Beaver Districts

Approximately 3,350 students were enrolled in three large school districts in western Beaver County today as classes got under way for the 1958-59 term. In each case, school administrators said they expected slight gains or no change from the enrollment in the previous term.

At Midland, approximately 1,450 students are expected in the high school and elementary system, little change from last term. The count will be completed officially at 2 p. m. by Supt. Ralph Jewell's office.

In Western Beaver School District, which has schools at Ohio View, Fairview and Industry, enrollment is expected to hit about 900. The system had 845 students last year, exclusive of tuition pupils attending Midland and Beaver Schools.

At the South Side Joint School near Hookstown, enrollment is ex-003 of last term. Both Western Beaver and South Side will complete their counts this afternoon.

228 Pupils Attend Lisbon Grade School

LISBON — A total of 228 students were enrolled in the first six grades at McKinley School this morning.

Tabulation at the high school and Lincoln School was not complete.

Beaver Enrollment Is 2,064 First Day

Beaver Local's first-day enrollment appeared slighly less than anticipated as 2,064 students resumed classes at the seven schools —including the new upper elementary building along Echo Dell Rd.

George VanHorne, executive head, said he expects about 2,100 when all students have reported by Friday. The total would still be somewhat less than the 2,150 expected, he added

Today's enrollment included 516 at the high school, 730 at the new upper elementary school, 375 at Calcutta, 129 at West Point, 142 at Rogers, 128 at Elkton and 40 at Oak Grove. The enrollment at the new school was heavier than anticipated, VanHorne said.

The breakdown of the enrollment included 239 in first grade, 215 in second, 171 in third 189 in fourth, 226 in fifth, 186 in sixth, 165 in seventh and 157 in eighth.

Commissioners Set Hearing On Annexation

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners have set Friday at 10 a. m. for a hearing on a petition for annexation of 1½ square miles of Fairfield Township to the village of Columbiana.

The petition presented by James E. Hunt of Middleton Rd., Columbiana R.D. 2, carries 116 names and is estimated to include 63 per cent of the adult population of the area.

Territory described is south of Columbiana along Fairfield School, Metz and Middleton Rds. and the Youngstown & Ohio Railroad and includes Columbiana's wells and water treatment plant. The area embraces six quarter sections in Sections 9, 10, 15 and 16.

The petition and map have been available for public inspection in the office of County Auditor Irvin J. Vorndran since it was filed June 18.

Street Liens Will Be Sold

Cumberland Council O.K.'s Fund Move

NEW CUMBERLAND -- A resolution authorizing the mayor and city clerk to sell certificates on street assessments was passed unanimously by City Council Tuesday night.

The Bank of Weirton agreed to purchase the assessment liens for face value at 6 per cent interest.

The bank will exercise a choice of certificates to purchase. The smallest single certificate is for $32.47, and the largest for $1,848.80. All liens were placed on a 10-year basis.

Assessments against persons owning property on Smith St. and 2nd Ave. were made to pay for road construction and resurfacing.

Funds collected from the sale of the certificates and liens will pay for construction costs. Work was done by the Tri-State Asphalt Co. of Martins Ferry and included the construction of a roadway on Smith St., and resurfacing and construction of certain sections of Second Ave.

Property owners will still be able to make payments at the City Building, Mrs. Mary Lou Wagner, clerk, said.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for purchasing a tar kettle to be used for maintenance work on the newly built road. Bids will be opened Oct. 7.

A request by the Rev. Allen Fields that the license fee for funeral home directors and embalmers be changed was denied. City ordinance requires funeral directors and embalmers to pay an annual license fee of $25.

Street Oiling Program Shifts Into First Ward

The city's street oiling equipment moved into East End today after working in the North Side area Tuesday, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

It's the second swing into the First Ward in the current campaign. The project was launched in East End about a week ago.

The program opened with city equipment and crews to take care of streets not covered in an earlier project under contract. It also will cover streets on which the new coat of oil was washed away by subsequent heavy rains.

Laughlin estimated the project is a little less than 50 per cent complete.

Lisbon Youth Jailed

LISBON — Harold C. Bailey, 18, of N. Market St. was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail and fined $1 and costs by Mayor John Todd Tuesday after he was charged with molesting a village girl as she was walking on N. Market St. Monday. The girl filed the charge. Mayor Todd suspended the costs.

Street Liens Will Be Sold

Cumberland Council O.K.'s Fund Move

NEW CUMBERLAND -- A resolution authorizing the mayor and city clerk to sell certificates on street assessments was passed unanimously by City Council Tuesday night.

The Bank of Weirton agreed to purchase the assessment liens for face value at 6 per cent interest.

The bank will exercise a choice of certificates to purchase. The smallest single certificate is for $32.47, and the largest for $1,848.80. All liens were placed on a 10-year basis.

Assessments against persons owning property on Smith St. and 2nd Ave. were made to pay for road construction and resurfacing.

Funds collected from the sale of the certificates and liens will pay for construction costs. Work was done by the Tri-State Asphalt Co. of Martins Ferry and included the construction of a roadway on Smith St., and resurfacing and construction of certain sections of Second Ave.

Property owners will still be able to make payments at the City Building, Mrs. Mary Lou Wagner, clerk, said.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for purchasing a tar kettle to be used for maintenance work on the newly built road. Bids will be opened Oct. 7.

A request by the Rev. Allen Fields that the license fee for funeral home directors and embalmers be changed was denied. City ordinance requires funeral directors and embalmers to pay an annual license fee of $25.

Baby Gorilla's Posture Better

Now Listen, Proud Papa

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The next time some proud papa buttonholes you and begins an endless recital about Baby's amazing progress, you are hereby authorized to interrupt with the following remark:

"Yes, but how's his symmetrical posturing? I'm told a baby gorilla does much better."

You will be right, of course. If papa wants proof, you can point to a paper delivered today at the American Psychological Assn. in Washington by Dr. Hilda Knobloch and Benjamin Pasamanick of Ohio State University.

Drs. Knobloch and Pasamanick give the little ape the nod every time in such things as sitting, toddling, walking and standing.

Dr. Knobloch is an associate professor of pediatrics. Dr. Pasamanick is professor of psychiatry.

Their paper is based on a study of Colo, a female gorilla born at the Columbus Zoo Dec. 22, 1956.

Among the findings:

From birth to six weeks of age, Colo showed "symmetrical posturings" of the body and head. That means she could keep her head centered and maintain her body in its normal position. She could also bring her hands together in front of her at birth.

It takes a human baby 16 weeks, say the doctors, both to attain symetrical posturing and engage their hands directly in front.

From the time she was born, Colo could lift her head while lying down. A human baby can't turn the trick until it's 28 weeks, the report says.

Colo could sit securely and pivot from a sitting position between 20 and 24 weeks. His human counterpart has to be twice as old.

Colo was able to stand while holding a railing at 14 weeks, something a human baby doesn't do until it is 32 to 36 weeks old. Colo walked while holding the railing at 18 weeks, a good 30 weeks ahead of a human baby.

But there is one consolation for proud papa. Colo may develop faster, but it's just that much sooner that she drops down and begins walking on all fours. Once baby gets up on his legs, he stays there.

New Method Converts Heat Directly Into Electricity

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new method by which heat can be converted directly into electricity was described today by Westinghouse scientists.

It uses a little-known class of materials resembling the ceramics used in china dinnerware. Reacting to heat, they produce electricity simply, silently and without moving parts.

Among first possible uses seen for the new materials is in vastly improving transmission of radio signals from earth satellites. They may enable satellite radios to transmit louder and more numerous signals and do so for six months or more compared with about a couple of weeks when employing conventional storage batteries.

Envisioned in another year or so are emergency power units for hospitals and for residential oil burners, washing machines and refrigerators during a conventional power failure.

For the more distant future the scientists forecast that units employing the new materials would supplement, but not replace, conventional methods of providing large-scale power.

The Westinghouse researchers stressed that the work still is in its early stages "but the day of useful, reasonably large thermoelectric power through these and other thermoelectric materials almost certainly lies in the not too distant future."

The new substances could utilize heat from such varied sources as coal, atomic reactors, liquid bottled gas and radioactive isotopes, the scientists said.

Bleacher Work Pushed At Chester City Park

Seven sections of bleachers were raised at the Chester City Park Tuesday night by volunteer workers to improve the spectators' view of the athletic field, and parts of new bleachers were connected, John Pinney of the Park Commission reported.

Pinney said about 13 more sections are to be raised and more volunteers are needed for a work session tonight at the field. Only seven worked last night when a city hi-lift was used to assist.

Foundation forms for the new bleachers were to be installed today, Pinney said.

August's Iron Ore Shipments Take Dip

Cheryl Crane's Father Hits Court On Custody Bid

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Cheryl Crane's father says the Superior Court made the girl a ward of the court without giving him a chance to petition for her custody.

Restauranteur Stephen Crane Tuesday appealed the order, handed down after Lana Turner's 14-year-old daughter fatally stabbed John Stompanato in the actress' home.

Judge Allen T. Lynch ruled that Cheryl would remain a ward of the court pending a possible judicial review next June. The girl is now living with Miss Turner's mother, under court supervision.

Crane filed the appeal in the District Court of Appeals. He contended that Judge Lynch ruled without taking evidence that Cheryl's welfare could best be served in the custody of one of her parents, rather than as a ward of the court.

Class In Adult Reading Skill Will Provide Geneva Credits

The class in improvement of adult reading skills to start Tuesday, Sept. 16 will also be offered for college credit through Geneva College, the Business & Professional Women's Club said. It is open to both men and women and will be held at the high school.

Mrs. Eleanor S. Ripper of Beaver, instructor, said those who desire three hours of college credit should register Monday evening at the high school. The tuition will be the regular fee charged at Geneva.

The Reading Workshop at Geneva has given courses in remedial reading for adult groups such as Westinghouse personnel.

"It is often found that an adult or high school age student can increase his reading speed as much as 4 to 6 grades in 12 weeks time with the proper analysis of his difficultues, Mrs. Ripper said, but she emphasizes that the student must practice continuously during the course. However, time is allowed during the class meetings for practice.

The course is to be held on Tuesday evenings at 7. Registration for those not after college credit can be made at the Carnegie Public Library and final enrollment with payment of fees is to be concluded by Sept. 15.

Many men who have mountains of professional material to absorb find these courses helpful in teaching the fine art of scanning, the instructor said. Students on the high school and college level who find that it is a chore to get through their assignments will benefit from this study. Teachers on the secondary level who are faced with tutoring pupils with reading difficulties will obtain from this course the tools to help them and their pupils.

Registration is limited to 35. The library phone number is FU. 5-2048.

Formosa

forces have not yet begun to fight," he said.

Nationalist forces are almost entirely equipped with U. S. weapons, and Smoot might have been referring to more and different arms for them.

More ships are on the way from the Mediterranean and the United States to join the U. S. 7th Fleet patrolling the Formosa Strait to prevent any Communist strike at Formosa. About 1,000 U. S. Marines are coming from Okinawa for maneuvers on Formosa this weekend. Additional jet fighters have been sent from the United States to Far Eastern bases.

The Nationalist defense ministry expressed confidence that its own navy could deal with Red torpedo boat attacks on supply ships to Quemoy. Communist shelling of the Quemoy airfield has virtually stopped air supply from Formosa.

The Defense Ministry spokesman, Rear Adm. Liu Hoh-tu, said some supply ships from the Pescadores Islands had been turned back by Red attacks. Others were getting through "but how many I'm not going to let the enemy know," Liu said.

One convoy was turned back Tuesday by Communist torpedo boats without unloading 370 of 400 Nationalist troops sent to reinforce the Quemoy garrison. U.S. military advisers in the Pescadores said it was the third time in four days that supply and troopships had been unable to complete unloading into small boats off Quemoy.

One Nationalist convoy officer insisted, "If it were absolutely necessary we could have gone in and landed our troops. But the men aboard were not vital to the defense of Quemoy this time and there was no point in risking lives and the ship."

Direct Aggression Charge Hurled At U.S.

CAIRO (AP)—President Nasser of the United Arab Republic today accused the United States of direct aggression against Communist China in the skirmishes off Formosa.

The Arab nationalist leader spoke over Cairo radio at a ceremony inaugurating the Executive Council of the federation of Yemen with the U. A. R.

The speech came shortly after the arrival of U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold for talks with Nasser as part of his Middle East peace mission.

Nasser also predicted Arab nationalism would be triumphant and bitterly charged that the United States and Britain were arming Israel as a "beachhead for imperialism."

Class In Adult Reading Skill Will Provide Geneva Credits

The class in improvement of adult reading skills to start Tuesday, Sept. 16 will also be offered for college credit through Geneva College, the Business & Professional Women's Club said. It is open to both men and women and will be held at the high school.

Mrs. Eleanor S. Ripper of Beaver, instructor, said those who desire three hours of college credit should register Monday evening at the high school. The tuition will be the regular fee charged at Geneva.

The Reading Workshop at Geneva has given courses in remedial reading for adult groups such as Westinghouse personnel.

"It is often found that an adult or high school age student can increase his reading speed as much as 4 to 6 grades in 12 weeks time with the proper analysis of his difficultues, Mrs. Ripper said, but she emphasizes that the student must practice continuously during the course. However, time is allowed during the class meetings for practice.

The course is to be held on Tuesday evenings at 7. Registration for those not after college credit can be made at the Carnegie Public Library and final enrollment with payment of fees is to be concluded by Sept. 15.

Many men who have mountains of professional material to absorb find these courses helpful in teaching the fine art of scanning, the instructor said. Students on the high school and college level who find that it is a chore to get through their assignments will benefit from this study. Teachers on the secondary level who are faced with tutoring pupils with reading difficulties will obtain from this course the tools to help them and their pupils.

Registration is limited to 35. The library phone number is FU. 5-2048.

Formosa

forces have not yet begun to fight," he said.

Nationalist forces are almost entirely equipped with U. S. weapons, and Smoot might have been referring to more and different arms for them.

More ships are on the way from the Mediterranean and the United States to join the U. S. 7th Fleet patrolling the Formosa Strait to prevent any Communist strike at Formosa. About 1,000 U. S. Marines are coming from Okinawa for maneuvers on Formosa this weekend. Additional jet fighters have been sent from the United States to Far Eastern bases.

The Nationalist defense ministry expressed confidence that its own navy could deal with Red torpedo boat attacks on supply ships to Quemoy. Communist shelling of the Quemoy airfield has virtually stopped air supply from Formosa.

The Defense Ministry spokesman, Rear Adm. Liu Hoh-tu, said some supply ships from the Pescadores Islands had been turned back by Red attacks. Others were getting through "but how many I'm not going to let the enemy know," Liu said.

One convoy was turned back Tuesday by Communist torpedo boats without unloading 370 of 400 Nationalist troops sent to reinforce the Quemoy garrison. U.S. military advisers in the Pescadores said it was the third time in four days that supply and troopships had been unable to complete unloading into small boats off Quemoy.

One Nationalist convoy officer insisted, "If it were absolutely necessary we could have gone in and landed our troops. But the men aboard were not vital to the defense of Quemoy this time and there was no point in risking lives and the ship."

Direct Aggression Charge Hurled At U.S.

CAIRO (AP)—President Nasser of the United Arab Republic today accused the United States of direct aggression against Communist China in the skirmishes off Formosa.

The Arab nationalist leader spoke over Cairo radio at a ceremony inaugurating the Executive Council of the federation of Yemen with the U. A. R.

The speech came shortly after the arrival of U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold for talks with Nasser as part of his Middle East peace mission.

Nasser also predicted Arab nationalism would be triumphant and bitterly charged that the United States and Britain were arming Israel as a "beachhead for imperialism."

For Peace, Mankind

U.S. To Ask U.N. Adopt Space Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States said today it will ask the U.N. Assembly to adopt a four-point plan to assure that outer space will be used solely for the peace and benefit of mankind.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge announced that the United States has asked that the proposal be put before the 81-nation Assembly scheduled to open at U.N. headquarters Sept. 16.

The four main points are:

1. Creation of a special U.N. committee to make detailed studies and recommendations of specific steps for furthering progress in outer space work and to assure that outer space will be used solely for man's benefit.

2. A declaration by the Assembly separating the subject of peaceful uses of outer space from the long fruitless disarmament negotiations.

3. A formal declaration giving Assembly support "the principle of the peaceful utilization of outer space."

4. An Assembly declaration endorsing in principle the establishment of appropriate international machinery to accomplish these aims.

Lodge announced to the American Legion convention in Chicago Tuesday that the United States would seek Assembly approval of an international space program.

The Soviet Union already has asked the Assembly to set up an agency for cooperation in the field of outer space. But it wants the Assembly to take up at the same time the elimination of foreign bases on territories of other countries—a subject the United States says should not be linked with outer space.

Gets Frosty Reception

Bender Not Angry At Investigators

WASHINGTON (AP) — George H. Bender, Teamster-paid investigator of corruption charges against the Teamsters Union, said today he isn't angry about the frosty reception the Senate Rackets Committee gave him.

Bender, a former Republican senator from Ohio, had denied to reporters that he was under political obligation to the Teamsters, as well as being on its payroll.

He was rebuffed Tuesday when he sought a chance to present this view to committee chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) and vice chairman Irving M. Ives (R-NY).

McClellan told Bender:

"If you have any self serving public statements to make, you can make them to the press."

Bender paid an unheralded visit to the committee's hearing room shortly after Teamster President James R. Hoffa had refused to tell reporters whether the union had made direct or indirect contributions to Bender's past campaigns for Senate or House seats.

Ives had criticized Hoffa's recent creation of the special commission headed by Bender to investigate corruption charges like those the Senate committee is airing in its hearings.

"Anything created by Hoffa can not have anything good about it," Ives told newsmen.

Bender said he was insulted by reports he had received campaign contributions from the Teamsters. "It never happened," he said.

He also told newsmen he is annoyed by stories which he said lay too much stress on the union paying him and his two colleagues on the special commission $250 a day for each day of work.

"I'm not wealthy, but I'm in comfortable circumstances," Bender said. "I don't have to be in a whitewash."

Spent Lifetime Doing It

Attorney Who Broke Up Many Con Games To Retire

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Heard any good schemes lately for getting rich quick?

Before investing any money, better check with a lanky attorney from Kentucky named Herman L. Arterberry. He's spent a lifetime matching wits with bunco promoters.

Arterberry has shaken the confidence of countless confidence men during his prosecutor's career that dates back to 1921.

A lot of them—in jail and out—will be happy with this news:

Arterberry, 70, retires officially Monday.

Nothing is truer, he says, than the con man's adage: "You can't cheat an honest man."

"Usually it's a person's greed that puts him in the clutches of a 'bunk,'" says Arterberry, using the jailhouse slang term for a fraud promoter.

An exception was the case of a charming old fraud who operated a lonely hearts club in Los Angeles during the 1930s.

His advertisements promising companionship and perhaps marriage brought replies from scores of widows and spinsters. The ladies with the most promising bank accounts were romanced personally by the suave con man, who cheated them out of more than $150,000.

Arterberry hounded oil swindlers in Texas and Arkansas as a federal prosecutor before joining the Los Angeles County district attorney's office in 1932.

He and his wife Imogene plan a trip to his home town—Tompkinsville, Ky., after he retires. Then he'll return to California and a limited private law practice.

Pole Who Stole Red Plane Made Citizen Of U.S.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A former Polish flier who won worldwide acclaim by landing a Soviet fighter plane in the free world calls his naturalization as an American citizen the greatest thrill of his life.

Frank E. Jarecki, 27, onetime lieutenant in the Soviet-dominated Polish air force, was among 19 persons who became citizens in a brief ceremony here Tuesday.

Jarecki, who lives in the little western Pennsylvania village of Reno, near Oil City, became an international figure March 5, 1953. On that day, coinciding with the death of Stalin, Jarecki took a Soviet MIG15 on a flight to freedom from near Warsaw to the Danish island of Bornholm.

NLRB Is Urged To Clear Artists Unit Of Charges

CINCINNATI (AP)—An examiner has recommended that the National Labor Relations Board clear the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists of unfair practice charges growing out of a strike here.

Charles L. Ferguson, who presided at hearings early this year, reported Tuesday that evidence failed to support any of the charges filed by L. B. Wilson Inc. in a strike against radio station WCKY.

The strike started Aug. 28, 1957, after wage negotiations fell apart. The station replaced seven announcers who went on strike.

The company charged that the union violated the Taft-Hartley Act by trying to induce ad agencies and employees not to make transcribed announcements for WCKY use.

Company attorneys said they plan to file an exception to the examiner report.

Westgate PTA To Open Season With Outing

The Westgate Elementary Parent-Teacher Association will launch its 1958-59 season with a wiener roast and square dance Friday night at 6:30 at the main pavilion at Thompson Park.

Parents of students enrolled for the first time at Westgate have been invited especially, Judson English, president, said. It is a "get-acquainted" meeting at which the year's activities will be previewed, so parents as well as their families should attend, he said.

The picnickers should take their own wieners and buns and a side dish such as baked beans, potato salad or a dessert, English said. The Westgate elementary section is comprised of grades 1 through 6.

No Special Privileges, Yugoslavs Tell Soviets

BELGRADE (AP)—"You have no special privileges in our country," the Yugoslav Communists told the Russians Tuesday night.

The statement came in reply to the charge by Pravda, the Soviet Communist organ, that Yugoslav authorities had checked passengers and crews of Soviet ships entering Yugoslavia.

Borba, mouthpiece of the Yugoslav Reds, said the Russians and all others entering Yugoslavia are subject to customs control.

"Maybe it's a custom in the East that Soviet citizens are not controlled when crossing borders," Borba said. "Perhaps that's why they are surprised that at our frontiers, they're checked just like anybody else."

Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Marshall, all distinguished American statesmen, graduated from the College of William and Mary at Williamsburg, Va.

For Peace, Mankind

U.S. To Ask U.N. Adopt Space Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States said today it will ask the U.N. Assembly to adopt a four-point plan to assure that outer space will be used solely for the peace and benefit of mankind.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge announced that the United States has asked that the proposal be put before the 81-nation Assembly scheduled to open at U.N. headquarters Sept. 16.

The four main points are:

1. Creation of a special U.N. committee to make detailed studies and recommendations of specific steps for furthering progress in outer space work and to assure that outer space will be used solely for man's benefit.

2. A declaration by the Assembly separating the subject of peaceful uses of outer space from the long fruitless disarmament negotiations.

3. A formal declaration giving Assembly support "the principle of the peaceful utilization of outer space."

4. An Assembly declaration endorsing in principle the establishment of appropriate international machinery to accomplish these aims.

Lodge announced to the American Legion convention in Chicago Tuesday that the United States would seek Assembly approval of an international space program.

The Soviet Union already has asked the Assembly to set up an agency for cooperation in the field of outer space. But it wants the Assembly to take up at the same time the elimination of foreign bases on territories of other countries—a subject the United States says should not be linked with outer space.

Gets Frosty Reception

Bender Not Angry At Investigators

WASHINGTON (AP) — George H. Bender, Teamster-paid investigator of corruption charges against the Teamsters Union, said today he isn't angry about the frosty reception the Senate Rackets Committee gave him.

Bender, a former Republican senator from Ohio, had denied to reporters that he was under political obligation to the Teamsters, as well as being on its payroll.

He was rebuffed Tuesday when he sought a chance to present this view to committee chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) and vice chairman Irving M. Ives (R-NY).

McClellan told Bender:

"If you have any self serving public statements to make, you can make them to the press."

Bender paid an unheralded visit to the committee's hearing room shortly after Teamster President James R. Hoffa had refused to tell reporters whether the union had made direct or indirect contributions to Bender's past campaigns for Senate or House seats.

Ives had criticized Hoffa's recent creation of the special commission headed by Bender to investigate corruption charges like those the Senate committee is airing in its hearings.

"Anything created by Hoffa can not have anything good about it," Ives told newsmen.

Bender said he was insulted by reports he had received campaign contributions from the Teamsters. "It never happened," he said.

He also told newsmen he is annoyed by stories which he said lay too much stress on the union paying him and his two colleagues on the special commission $250 a day for each day of work.

"I'm not wealthy, but I'm in comfortable circumstances," Bender said. "I don't have to be in a whitewash."

Spent Lifetime Doing It

Attorney Who Broke Up Many Con Games To Retire

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Heard any good schemes lately for getting rich quick?

Before investing any money, better check with a lanky attorney from Kentucky named Herman L. Arterberry. He's spent a lifetime matching wits with bunco promoters.

Arterberry has shaken the confidence of countless confidence men during his prosecutor's career that dates back to 1921.

A lot of them—in jail and out—will be happy with this news:

Arterberry, 70, retires officially Monday.

Nothing is truer, he says, than the con man's adage: "You can't cheat an honest man."

"Usually it's a person's greed that puts him in the clutches of a 'bunk,'" says Arterberry, using the jailhouse slang term for a fraud promoter.

An exception was the case of a charming old fraud who operated a lonely hearts club in Los Angeles during the 1930s.

His advertisements promising companionship and perhaps marriage brought replies from scores of widows and spinsters. The ladies with the most promising bank accounts were romanced personally by the suave con man, who cheated them out of more than $150,000.

Arterberry hounded oil swindlers in Texas and Arkansas as a federal prosecutor before joining the Los Angeles County district attorney's office in 1932.

He and his wife Imogene plan a trip to his home town—Tompkinsville, Ky., after he retires. Then he'll return to California and a limited private law practice.

Pole Who Stole Red Plane Made Citizen Of U.S.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A former Polish flier who won worldwide acclaim by landing a Soviet fighter plane in the free world calls his naturalization as an American citizen the greatest thrill of his life.

Frank E. Jarecki, 27, onetime lieutenant in the Soviet-dominated Polish air force, was among 19 persons who became citizens in a brief ceremony here Tuesday.

Jarecki, who lives in the little western Pennsylvania village of Reno, near Oil City, became an international figure March 5, 1953. On that day, coinciding with the death of Stalin, Jarecki took a Soviet MIG15 on a flight to freedom from near Warsaw to the Danish island of Bornholm.

NLRB Is Urged To Clear Artists Unit Of Charges

CINCINNATI (AP)—An examiner has recommended that the National Labor Relations Board clear the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists of unfair practice charges growing out of a strike here.

Charles L. Ferguson, who presided at hearings early this year, reported Tuesday that evidence failed to support any of the charges filed by L. B. Wilson Inc. in a strike against radio station WCKY.

The strike started Aug. 28, 1957, after wage negotiations fell apart. The station replaced seven announcers who went on strike.

The company charged that the union violated the Taft-Hartley Act by trying to induce ad agencies and employees not to make transcribed announcements for WCKY use.

Company attorneys said they plan to file an exception to the examiner report.

Westgate PTA To Open Season With Outing

The Westgate Elementary Parent-Teacher Association will launch its 1958-59 season with a wiener roast and square dance Friday night at 6:30 at the main pavilion at Thompson Park.

Parents of students enrolled for the first time at Westgate have been invited especially, Judson English, president, said. It is a "get-acquainted" meeting at which the year's activities will be previewed, so parents as well as their families should attend, he said.

The picnickers should take their own wieners and buns and a side dish such as baked beans, potato salad or a dessert, English said. The Westgate elementary section is comprised of grades 1 through 6.

No Special Privileges, Yugoslavs Tell Soviets

BELGRADE (AP)—"You have no special privileges in our country," the Yugoslav Communists told the Russians Tuesday night.

The statement came in reply to the charge by Pravda, the Soviet Communist organ, that Yugoslav authorities had checked passengers and crews of Soviet ships entering Yugoslavia.

Borba, mouthpiece of the Yugoslav Reds, said the Russians and all others entering Yugoslavia are subject to customs control.

"Maybe it's a custom in the East that Soviet citizens are not controlled when crossing borders," Borba said. "Perhaps that's why they are surprised that at our frontiers, they're checked just like anybody else."

Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Marshall, all distinguished American statesmen, graduated from the College of William and Mary at Williamsburg, Va.

Optimism Runs High At Irondale With 9 Veterans In Fold

New Coaching Staff Guiding 30 Candidates

By CHUCK CRONIN
Review Sports Writer

Irondale, where football fortunes started on the upswing several years ago but nosedived last season, figures to be rated among the top Jefferson County A powers this fall as a new coaching staff takes over with a crop of 30 promising gridders including nine lettermen.

Fred Sims of Columbus, a recent graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University, and Les Douglas, a product of Martins Ferry High School and an alumnus of West Liberty State College, are counting heavily on the Irons to greatly improve on last year's season mark of three victories and five defeats.

As successor to Len Batcha who moved on to Leetonia, Sims finds himself in a rather delightful predicament with the returnees as veterans at the Irondale school seem to be sparse at times.

However, the squad lists only 30 members, and injuries — always a fearsome bugaboo with lack of manpower — could prove to be serious.

Sims looks for a much better scoring punch and a heavier and more hustling group of defensemen to provide the elements for enough victories to better last year's mark and propel the Irons to the top of the A grid race.

This year's backfield will be built around driving fullback Scott Patton, a 150-pound letterman, who earned his spurs with Batcha's team last year and turned in several neat performances with long dashes.

Patton, one of four seniors on the club, will team with halfback letterman Donald Fraley, a 145-pound speedster, in ball toting chores.

Heading a strong line is rugged Lonnie Fraley, 155-pound guard, while Sims has other veteran linemen in guard Ronald Brammer, 150-pound senior, Douglas Logan, 152, and Frank Pisarsky, 140, a pair of veteran ends, and hefty David Davis, 190-pound tackle, and Earl Allen, 150-pound center. John Pilutti, 155 pound junior, will be depended on to operate either at quarterback or halfback. He also is a letterman.

"We have a small group of small boys but they have a lot of fight and will make up in spirit what they lack in poundage," Sims pointed out, but cautioned that "injuries will be our worst enemy."

"I'll need 60-minute men at least three positions," he ventured.

Sims was pleased with the team's spirit and hustle shown in recent drills in preparation for Friday's preview game at Steubenville with Adena and indicated that the brief workout should reveal how serious the quarterback problem will be in the coming season.

Pilutti is presently being groomed for the signal calling job but is inexperienced and may be moved to another spot in place of Bill Chetock, 140-pound junior, a fair passer, but out for football for his first time.

While Logan and Pisarsky—both lightweights—get the nod at the terminals by virtue of last year's experience, the tackle slots will add some heft to the line in Davis, the squad's heaviest man, and Robert Mills, 154-pound freshman who has "really looked promising" in recent workouts, Sims said.

Lon Fraley and Brammer should prove adequate at guards and teamed with Allen, who performed well defensively last year, are expected to man the center of the line very well, the coach said.

Other prospective candidates include Bennie Chetock, 165 - pound freshman tackle, William Perkins, 145-pound senior end, Keith Burgett, 165-pound tackle, Kent Cline, 145-pound freshman lineman, Ernest Leedy, 136-pound halfback, and Charles Allen, 132-pound freshman guard. Stanley Wickman, 100-pound freshman halfback candidate, gets the squad's dubious distinction of being the lightest man.

Graduation hit the Irons comparatively light, resulting in the loss of the only regulars in quarterback Bill Leedy, tackle Bill Banfield, end Jack Martin, and another halfback. Guard Elmer Grafton did not return to school this year and quarterback Pete Sambrock decided to give up the game. He was being counted on as being a first-stringer this year.

The squad probably will operate from a T-formation with either Patton or Don Fraley handling the punting when the opener arrives Sept. 12 with Beaver Local, a team which the Irons whipped last year, 18-0.

However, Beaver Local will provide a stiff test this year with a host of returning lettermen and will be out to avenge the defeat. The Irondale schedule shows two open dates, Sept. 19 and Oct. 31, which may be filled later.

Irondale's Schedule And Record For 1957

IRONS LOOK FOR GOOD SEASON. Nine returning lettermen will bolster the grid fortunes this season at Irondale but sophomores and freshmen untested as yet in varsity competition figure to play key roles. Fred Sims of Columbus, a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, is new mentor of the Irons, replacing Len Batcha, now at Leetonia. Simis must solve any injury problems, but the overall outlook looms bright with the return of fullback Scott Patton and halfback Don Fraley and several rugged linemen headed by Lon Fraley. Shown left to right, sitting, are Thomas Carpenter, Jesse Clutter, Dorman Patterson, Clyde Griffith, Kent Cline, Stanley Wickham, Curtis Rose, James Leedy, Charles Allen and Larry Grimm; second row, kneeling, are Doug Logan, Bennie Chetock, Robert Mills, David Davis, Lonnie Fraley, Pete Allen, Ron Brammer, Keith Burgett, Bill Perkins, Frank Pisarsky, and Craig Fagan, manager; third row, standing, are Douglas Warden, manager, Scott Patton, Bill Chetock, Donald Fraley, John Pilutti, James Sanders, Ernest Leedy, Terry Tice, Sims, and Les Douglas, assistant coach.

IRONDALE LETTER WINNERS. These nine gridders will be the backbone of Irondale's football team this fall under new coach Fred Sims and figure to help spark the club to the top of the A heap in Jefferson County. Only two positions will be filled with non-letter-winners, a tackle and a half back, but the quarterback spot also is a question mark at the present. The Irons see limited action in the Steubenville football preview Friday night and will meet Beaver Local at home in the opener for both schools Sept. 12. Left to right on the line are Douglas Logan, Ron Brammer, Pete Allen, Lonnie Fraley, David Davis and Frank Pisarsky. The backs include Don Fraley, Scott Patton and John Pilutti, who may go at the signal-calling post.

OSU Coach Has Eyes On Some Sophomores

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio State football Coach Woody Hayes apparently isn't going to be satisfied with the returning power-packed defending Big Ten Champions. He's got an eye on several sophomores.

The varsity rookies range in size from 6-foot, 6-inch 254-pound tackle Jim Tyrer of Newark, Ohio, to 5-foot, 8-inch 166-pound halfback Jim Herbstreit of Reading, Ohio.

Oscar Hauer, 213-pound guard, appears to be the brightest of the hopefuls. Hayes moved the Hamilton, Ohio, product into the first team left guard spot, dropping senior Dan James back a notch.

Bucs' Friend Wins 19th; Dodgers Spill Giants, 4-0

By The Associated Press

Since 1930, the year Bob Friend was born, the Pittsburgh Pirates have come up with only two 20-victory pitchers. Now Friend is just one game short of becoming the third.

The last was Murry Dickson, now with the New York Yankees. He did it in 1951—and with a seventh-place club.

Truett (Rip) Sewell, the guy with the blooper pitch, is the only other Buc to win 20 in one season since 1930. He did it twice, in the war years of 1943 and 1944.

Now, with the Pirates scrapping for their first finish in the first division in a decade, Friend is the National League's top winner. He picked up his 19th Tuesday night as the Bucs defeated Philadelphia 3-2 and regained a second-place tie with San Francisco.

The Giants were spilled 4-0 by the Los Angeles Dodgers and Don Drysdale, who allowed five hits in his first shutout in a year. That left the Giants and Bucs eight games behind idle Milwaukee.

St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 4-2.

In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated Boston 6-1, regaining a 12-game lead over the idle Chicago White Sox. Washington beat Baltimore 4-3 and Detroit whipped Kansas City 6-1.

Drysdale (11-11) struck out six and walked three. It was his sixth straight win. He gave up two hits in the fifth, when the Giants loaded the bases with one out on Orlando Cepeda's double, a single by Hank Sauer and a walk. Drysdale then fanned pinchhitter Leon Wagner and got pinch hitter Whitey Lockman on a fly ball.

The Dodgers nailed it in the first on Gino Cimoli's solo homer, his eighth, off loser Ray Monzant (6-9).

Bob Mabe gained his first major league victory after five defeats with the Cardinals, striking out eight while allowing seven hits and only one earned run. Wally Moon's double broke a 1-1 tie and Irv Noren singled him home with the clincher in a two-run second inning against loser Bob Purkey (15-9).

Other prospective candidates include Bennie Chetock, 165 - pound freshman tackle, William Perkins, 145-pound senior end, Keith Burgett, 165-pound tackle, Kent Cline, 145-pound freshman lineman, Ernest Leedy, 136-pound halfback, and Charles Allen, 132-pound freshman guard. Stanley Wickman, 100-pound freshman halfback candidate, gets the squad's dubious distinction of being the lightest man.

Graduation hit the Irons comparatively light, resulting in the loss of the only regulars in quarterback Bill Leedy, tackle Bill Banfield, end Jack Martin, and another halfback. Guard Elmer Grafton did not return to school this year and quarterback Pete Sambrock decided to give up the game. He was being counted on as being a first-stringer this year.

The squad probably will operate from a T-formation with either Patton or Don Fraley handling the punting when the opener arrives Sept. 12 with Beaver Local, a team which the Irons whipped last year, 18-0.

However, Beaver Local will provide a stiff test this year with a host of returning lettermen and will be out to avenge the defeat. The Irondale schedule shows two open dates, Sept. 19 and Oct. 31, which may be filled later.

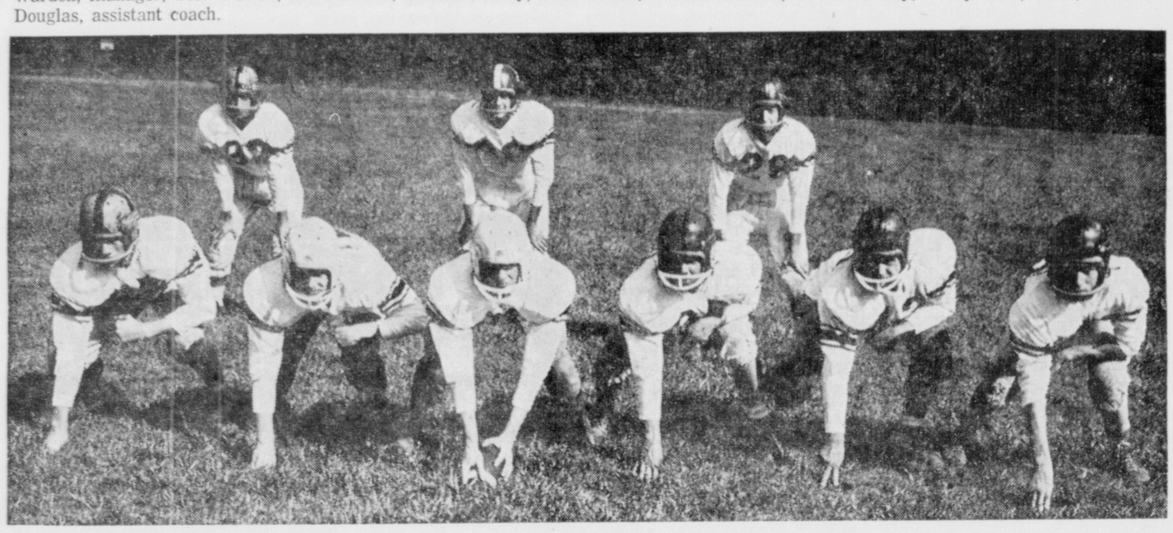
IRONS LOOK FOR GOOD SEASON. Nine returning lettermen will bolster the grid fortunes this season at Irondale but sophomores and freshmen untested as yet in varsity competition figure to play key roles. Fred Sims of Columbus, a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, is new mentor of the Irons, replacing Len Batcha, now at Leetonia. Simis must solve any injury problems, but the overall outlook looms bright with the return of fullback Scott Patton and halfback Don Fraley and several rugged linemen headed by Lon Fraley. Shown left to right, sitting, are Thomas Carpenter, Jesse Clutter, Dorman Patterson, Clyde Griffith, Kent Cline, Stanley Wickham, Curtis Rose, James Leedy, Charles Allen and Larry Grimm; second row, kneeling, are Doug Logan, Bennie Chetock, Robert Mills, David Davis, Lonnie Fraley, Pete Allen, Ron Brammer, Keith Burgett, Bill Perkins, Frank Pisarsky, and Craig Fagan, manager; third row, standing, are Douglas Warden, manager, Scott Patton, Bill Chetock, Donald Fraley, John Pilutti, James Sanders, Ernest Leedy, Terry Tice, Sims, and Les Douglas, assistant coach.



IRONDALE LETTER WINNERS. These nine gridders will be the backbone of Irondale's football team this fall under new coach Fred Sims and figure to help spark the club to the top of the A heap in Jefferson County. Only two positions will be filled with non-letter-winners, a tackle and a half back, but the quarterback spot also is a question mark at the present. The Irons see limited action in the Steubenville football preview Friday night and will meet Beaver Local at home in the opener for both schools Sept. 12. Left to right on the line are Douglas Logan, Ron Brammer, Pete Allen, Lonnie Fraley, David Davis and Frank Pisarsky. The backs include Don Fraley, Scott Patton and John Pilutti, who may go at the signal-calling post.

OSU Coach Has Eyes On Some Sophomores

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio State football Coach Woody Hayes apparently isn't going to be satisfied with the returning power-packed defending Big Ten Champions. He's got an eye on several sophomores.

The varsity rookies range in size from 6-foot, 6-inch 254-pound tackle Jim Tyrer of Newark, Ohio, to 5-foot, 8-inch 166-pound halfback Jim Herbstreit of Reading, Ohio.

Oscar Hauer, 213-pound guard, appears to be the brightest of the hopefuls. Hayes moved the Hamilton, Ohio, product into the first team left guard spot, dropping senior Dan James back a notch.

Bucs' Friend Wins 19th; Dodgers Spill Giants, 4-0

By The Associated Press

Since 1930, the year Bob Friend was born, the Pittsburgh Pirates have come up with only two 20-victory pitchers. Now Friend is just one game short of becoming the third.

The last was Murry Dickson, now with the New York Yankees. He did it in 1951—and with a seventh-place club.

Truett (Rip) Sewell, the guy with the blooper pitch, is the only other Buc to win 20 in one season since 1930. He did it twice, in the war years of 1943 and 1944.

Now, with the Pirates scrapping for their first finish in the first division in a decade, Friend is the National League's top winner. He picked up his 19th Tuesday night as the Bucs defeated Philadelphia 3-2 and regained a second-place tie with San Francisco.

The Giants were spilled 4-0 by the Los Angeles Dodgers and Don Drysdale, who allowed five hits in his first shutout in a year. That left the Giants and Bucs eight games behind idle Milwaukee.

St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 4-2.

In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated Boston 6-1, regaining a 12-game lead over the idle Chicago White Sox. Washington beat Baltimore 4-3 and Detroit whipped Kansas City 6-1.

Drysdale (11-11) struck out six and walked three. It was his sixth straight win. He gave up two hits in the fifth, when the Giants loaded the bases with one out on Orlando Cepeda's double, a single by Hank Sauer and a walk. Drysdale then fanned pinchhitter Leon Wagner and got pinch hitter Whitey Lockman on a fly ball.

The Dodgers nailed it in the first on Gino Cimoli's solo homer, his eighth, off loser Ray Monzant (6-9).

Bob Mabe gained his first major league victory after five defeats with the Cardinals, striking out eight while allowing seven hits and only one earned run. Wally Moon's double broke a 1-1 tie and Irv Noren singled him home with the clincher in a two-run second inning against loser Bob Purkey (15-9).

Casey Forms 'Fourth' Yank Mound Staff

By The Associated Press

Casey Stengel has his ninth American League pennant all but officially bagged. He has a 12-game lead with less than two dozen games to play. Yet this may be the toughest part of the season for the New York Yankee skipper.

What he needs is time, not to clinch the flag, but to rest his ailing pitchers — southpaw Whitey Ford and right-hander Don Larsen—for next month's World Series. Both have been found free of serious arm trouble, but a holiday has been prescribed for both.

So what's Casey do? He comes up with a new set of starting pitchers, his fourth this year.

He has brought Bobby Shantz and Zack Monroe out of the bullpen to form a five-man starting staff with Bob Turley, Art Ditmar and Duke Mass. It could be a six-man group with Murry Dickson.

Thus far, the "new" staff of starters has won three of five games. Monroe, recalled from the minors, pitched his first complete game in the majors Tuesday night for a 6-1 victory over Boston.

Washington spilled Baltimore 4-3 and Detroit tied the Orioles for fourth by defeating Kansas City 6-1 in the only other games scheduled.

In the National League, idle Milwaukee's lead returned to eight games as Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 4-0 and Pittsburgh tied the Giants for second by defeating Philadelphia 3-2. St. Louis beat Cincinnati 4-2.

Herb Moford (4-7) gave up only two hits as the Tigers swept their three-game series at Kansas City. He had a perfect game until Harry Chiti doubled in the sixth inning, then lost his shutout on Bob Cerv's 30th home run in the seventh. Bob Grim (4-6) lost it.

Pete Ramos reached his major league high with his 13th victory for the Senators, but needed relief help and a good defensive play by shortstop Ossie Alvarez to nail it after blanking the Birds on two hits for six innings. Alvarez' backhand stab turned pinchhitter Joy Taylor's bases-loaded smash into a game-ending double play. Albie Pearson, hit a three-run, inside-the-park homer in the third off loser Hec Brown (6-4).

Detroit Tiger infielders Gail Harris and Ozzie Virgil were teammates on the New York Giants in 1957.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

If anyone's interested, rails and gallinules are now legal quarry for district hunters.

If you know where there are any rails and gallinules, please let me know. Being the game protector I would like to be there to see that no more than the legal limit is taken. Frankly, if any one has ever seen a gallinule in this county, he has seen more than I.

As for rail, I have seen a Little Virginia rail scoot across the highway occasionally and duck in the nearest marsh or culvert.

It is so tiny it would take about six to make a good meal. And I am not sure how tasty they might be. Ever eat one?

I think the most of us will hold fire until the bushy tail season opens Friday.

WHEN squirrel season opens, and I happen to run across you, don't think I have "flipped my lid" when I ask you to let me have the right front paw of the squirrel and a few drops of blood.

To explain, the bone structure in the squirrel's "wrist" will be examined by our technicians. They are able to determine if it is mature or immature.

If only immature animals are taken then, that would mean the brood stock was not effected. In reverse, if only mature squirrels were taken, then mose research would be necessary to find out why.

So far the answer has been that the long season has not affected the squirrels one way or the other.

The blood samples I take will be sent in to our laboratory where it will be examined to see if certain diseases occur in the rodents.

NOT ONLY will I be busily engaged taking blood samples from squirrels, but my instructions are to get blood samples from raccoon, barn rats, cats (don't get excited, I won't shoot your cat) rabbits, mink, field mice and many other wild animals, including skunks.

There's nothing delightful about getting blood samples from a skunk or a fox, but the job must be done to determine what kind of diseases they might be spreading around.

To the laymen, this might sound like wasted time and money.

But believe me, if the Ohio Division of Wildlife did not keep abreast of the times in wildlife research then all they would be doing would be to operate on guess work. And no private or public businss can survive on guesswork.

At this time I would appreciate a little cooperation. If you have any pussy cats or tom cats you want to get rid of, call me. All I want is a fair sample of cat blood from each township within the county.

Final Plans Ironed Out In Friday Grid Preview

Movies of a scrimmage game between East Liverpool's football team and Youngstown East and another entitled "Meet The Potters" were screened when the Blue and White Nonpareil Club met Tuesday night in the YMCA.

Final plans were also ironed out for the football preview Friday night at 7 at Patterson Field with 10 teams from the district meeting in abbreviated contests. Ed Hester is general chairman.

Potter grid coach Lou Venditti screened the movies and also went over this year's season prospects, naming a possible starting lineup, pointing out injuries and sparkplugs and introducing members of his staff.

During business conducted by H. A. "Hap" Tullis, president, a motion was also passed to contribute $650 to the East Liverpool High School Athletic Association for movies of each season game.

Venditti, who will take his Potters to Struthers for a scrimmage game today at 3:30, indicated that the presence of the injury bug this year might play havoc with the Potter chances but added he looks for a strong starting eleven.

This year's team will be unveiled at the grid preview sponsored by the club Friday night, meeting Welisville in the finale at about 9:15 p. m., while the regular season opener will be with powerful Akron St. Vincent at home on Sept. 12. St. Vincent has at least a dozen returning lettermen, Venditti pointed out.

"We'll be pleased with four victories gleaned from this tough schedule," Venditti ventured, with sophomores destined to play a major role this year.

East Liverpool's reserves will meet the Struthers jayvees in a game Saturday morning at 9:30 at Patterson Field, the coach announced.

About 35 members attended. The next meeting will be Tuesday night at 8 in the YMCA.

Gordon Sees Tribe Ending In 4th Place

CLEVELAND (AP)— Manager Joe Gordon is looking a few weeks ahead — and he sees his Cleveland Indians finishing in the first division of the American League.

"I've said all along that all we needed was a little luck and we'd be right up there," Gordon said Tuesday, an off-day for the Tribe. "Now maybe we'll start winning those one-run games."

Since Gordon became manager, the Indians have won 33 games and lost 32. Of these losses, 15 have been by one-run margins.

Southpaw Hal Woodeshick will pitch tonight against the seventh-place Athletics whose moundsman will be Ray Herbert (8-6). Woodeshick has a 3-5 mark.

Thursday Cal McLish will go after No. 15 for the Indians.

In the stretch drive to close the game and a half gap to fourth place, Herb Score may be of some help to the club's pitching where the burden has been borne largely by McLish.

"He may give us the list we need — starting or relieving," Gordon said. "He did a great job in Chicago and I expect him to be a big help in the next few weeks. It's great to have him back. Makes you wonder where you'd be if he'd been with you all along."

Baseball has become as popular in South Africa as British cricket and soccer.

Pena, Schmidt Sparkle But Redlegs Lose

CINCINNATI (AP) — Orlando Pena, the Reds new pitching rookie, commands little English, but his hurling speaks volumes for his determination to stick in the majors.

He and Willard Schmidt, working in relief, held St. Louis Cardinals scoreless from the third inning on Tuesday night.

But in the same period, their teammates collected only four scattered hits from rookie Bob Mabe and the Cards secured a 4-2 victory.

It was an off night for the Reds' best hurler, Bob Purkey. The Cards tagged him early and often bulging up four runs in the first three innings.

Two hits and an error produced one run for Cincinnati in the first. Johnny Temple reached base safely on Ruben Amaro's fumble and successive singles by Jerry Lynch and Gus Bell brought him home.

But that was matched in the same inning when straight safeties by Cardinal's Wally Moon, Irv Noren and Stan Musial jammed the bases, setting the scene for Moon to score while Cunningham was nabbed at first.

Two followup St. Louis runs came in the second inning and one more in the third.

One final Redleg marker came in the seventh when Roy McMillan walked, reached second on a wild pitch and Temple singled him home.

In the decisive two-run second inning, singles by Amaro and Noren around Moon's double did all the damage.

Gene Green singled in Joe Cunningham, who had doubled, for the final St. Louis marker.

'Old Fellow' Causes Stir In U.S. Net Play

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—An old fellow playing in the National Tennis Championships is beginning to cause some nail-biting among the upper crust.

The folks on the tournament trail might even have trouble recognizing him because he's a securities salesman these days, plays tennis just for fun.

His name is Vic Seixas. He won the National title in 1954 and played on a half dozen Davis Cup teams.

At the moment, he is in the round of 16 in the Nationals. He turned back Jon Douglas Tuesday, 4-6, 10-8, 6-4, 6-4.

His scheduled opponent today was Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., and then — if he gets past Mike — Ashley Cooper of Australia.

Half the quarter-final was filled Tuesday.

Cooper advanced at the expense of Mike Franks of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4. Neale Fraser, another Aussie, turned back Grant Golden of Evanston, Ill., 6-4, 6-1, 6-4. Dick Savitt of East Orange, N. J., halted Rod Laver of Australia, 3-6, 9-7, 6-4. Alex Olmedo of Peru polished off Leslie Longshore of Aniston, Ala., 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

In the women's division, half the quarter - final bracket also is filled.

In Tuesday's matches, Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., defeated Mary Hawton of Australia, 6-0, 6-2. Mrs. Dorothy Knode of Forest Hills vanquished Margaret Varner of El Paso, Tex., 6-2, 6-3. Jeanne Arth of St. Paul ousted Katherine Hubbell of Conway, N. Y., 6-1, 6-1. Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., downed Ann Haydon of Britain, 8-6, 10-8.

Casey Forms 'Fourth' Yank Mound Staff

By The Associated Press

Casey Stengel has his ninth American League pennant all but officially bagged. He has a 12-game lead with less than two dozen games to play. Yet this may be the toughest part of the season for the New York Yankee skipper.

What he needs is time, not to clinch the flag, but to rest his ailing pitchers — southpaw Whitey Ford and right-hander Don Larsen—for next month's World Series. Both have been found free of serious arm trouble, but a holiday has been prescribed for both.

So what's Casey do? He comes up with a new set of starting pitchers, his fourth this year.

He has brought Bobby Shantz and Zack Monroe out of the bullpen to form a five-man starting staff with Bob Turley, Art Ditmar and Duke Mass. It could be a six-man group with Murry Dickson.

Thus far, the "new" staff of starters has won three of five games. Monroe, recalled from the minors, pitched his first complete game in the majors Tuesday night for a 6-1 victory over Boston.

Washington spilled Baltimore 4-3 and Detroit tied the Orioles for fourth by defeating Kansas City 6-1 in the only other games scheduled.

In the National League, idle Milwaukee's lead returned to eight games as Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 4-0 and Pittsburgh tied the Giants for second by defeating Philadelphia 3-2. St. Louis beat Cincinnati 4-2.

Herb Moford (4-7) gave up only two hits as the Tigers swept their three-game series at Kansas City. He had a perfect game until Harry Chiti doubled in the sixth inning, then lost his shutout on Bob Cerv's 30th home run in the seventh. Bob Grim (4-6) lost it.

Pete Ramos reached his major league high with his 13th victory for the Senators, but needed relief help and a good defensive play by shortstop Ossie Alvarez to nail it after blanking the Birds on two hits for six innings. Alvarez' backhand stab turned pinchhitter Joy Taylor's bases-loaded smash into a game-ending double play. Albie Pearson, hit a three-run, inside-the-park homer in the third off loser Hec Brown (6-4).

Detroit Tiger infielders Gail Harris and Ozzie Virgil were teammates on the New York Giants in 1957.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

If anyone's interested, rails and gallinules are now legal quarry for district hunters.

If you know where there are any rails and gallinules, please let me know. Being the game protector I would like to be there to see that no more than the legal limit is taken. Frankly, if any one has ever seen a gallinule in this county, he has seen more than I.

As for rail, I have seen a Little Virginia rail scoot across the highway occasionally and duck in the nearest marsh or culvert.

It is so tiny it would take about six to make a good meal. And I am not sure how tasty they might be. Ever eat one?

I think the most of us will hold fire until the bushy tail season opens Friday.

WHEN squirrel season opens, and I happen to run across you, don't think I have "flipped my lid" when I ask you to let me have the right front paw of the squirrel and a few drops of blood.

To explain, the bone structure in the squirrel's "wrist" will be examined by our technicians. They are able to determine if it is mature or immature.

If only immature animals are taken then, that would mean the brood stock was not effected. In reverse, if only mature squirrels were taken, then mose research would be necessary to find out why.

So far the answer has been that the long season has not affected the squirrels one way or the other.

The blood samples I take will be sent in to our laboratory where it will be examined to see if certain diseases occur in the rodents.

NOT ONLY will I be busily engaged taking blood samples from squirrels, but my instructions are to get blood samples from raccoon, barn rats, cats (don't get excited, I won't shoot your cat) rabbits, mink, field mice and many other wild animals, including skunks.

There's nothing delightful about getting blood samples from a skunk or a fox, but the job must be done to determine what kind of diseases they might be spreading around.

To the laymen, this might sound like wasted time and money.

But believe me, if the Ohio Division of Wildlife did not keep abreast of the times in wildlife research then all they would be doing would be to operate on guess work. And no private or public businss can survive on guesswork.

At this time I would appreciate a little cooperation. If you have any pussy cats or tom cats you want to get rid of, call me. All I want is a fair sample of cat blood from each township within the county.

Final Plans Ironed Out In Friday Grid Preview

Movies of a scrimmage game between East Liverpool's football team and Youngstown East and another entitled "Meet The Potters" were screened when the Blue and White Nonpareil Club met Tuesday night in the YMCA.

Final plans were also ironed out for the football preview Friday night at 7 at Patterson Field with 10 teams from the district meeting in abbreviated contests. Ed Hester is general chairman.

Potter grid coach Lou Venditti screened the movies and also went over this year's season prospects, naming a possible starting lineup, pointing out injuries and sparkplugs and introducing members of his staff.

During business conducted by H. A. "Hap" Tullis, president, a motion was also passed to contribute $650 to the East Liverpool High School Athletic Association for movies of each season game.

Venditti, who will take his Potters to Struthers for a scrimmage game today at 3:30, indicated that the presence of the injury bug this year might play havoc with the Potter chances but added he looks for a strong starting eleven.

This year's team will be unveiled at the grid preview sponsored by the club Friday night, meeting Wellsville in the finale at about 9:15 p. m., while the regular season opener will be with powerful Akron St. Vincent at home on Sept. 12. St. Vincent has at least a dozen returning lettermen, Venditti pointed out.

"We'll be pleased with four victories gleaned from this tough schedule," Venditti ventured, with sophomores destined to play a major role this year.

East Liverpool's reserves will meet the Struthers jayvees in a game Saturday morning at 9:30 at Patterson Field, the coach announced.

About 35 members attended. The next meeting will be Tuesday night at 8 in the YMCA.

Gordon Sees Tribe Ending In 4th Place

CLEVELAND (AP)— Manager Joe Gordon is looking a few weeks ahead — and he sees his Cleveland Indians finishing in the first division of the American League.

"I've said all along that all we needed was a little luck and we'd be right up there," Gordon said Tuesday, an off-day for the Tribe. "Now maybe we'll start winning those one-run games."

Since Gordon became manager, the Indians have won 33 games and lost 32. Of these losses, 15 have been by one-run margins.

Southpaw Hal Woodeshick will pitch tonight against the seventh-place Athletics whose moundsman will be Ray Herbert (8-6). Woodeshick has a 3-5 mark.

Thursday Cal McLish will go after No. 15 for the Indians.

In the stretch drive to close the game and a half gap to fourth place, Herb Score may be of some help to the club's pitching where the burden has been borne largely by McLish.

"He may give us the list we need — starting or relieving," Gordon said. "He did a great job in Chicago and I expect him to be a big help in the next few weeks. It's great to have him back. Makes you wonder where you'd be if he'd been with you all along."

Baseball has become as popular in South Africa as British cricket and soccer.

Pena, Schmidt Sparkle But Redlegs Lose

CINCINNATI (AP) — Orlando Pena, the Reds new pitching rookie, commands little English, but his hurling speaks volumes for his determination to stick in the majors.

He and Willard Schmidt, working in relief, held St. Louis Cardinals scoreless from the third inning on Tuesday night.

But in the same period, their teammates collected only four scattered hits from rookie Bob Mabe and the Cards secured a 4-2 victory.

It was an off night for the Reds' best hurler, Bob Purkey. The Cards tagged him early and often bulging up four runs in the first three innings.

Two hits and an error produced one run for Cincinnati in the first. Johnny Temple reached base safely on Ruben Amaro's fumble and successive singles by Jerry Lynch and Gus Bell brought him home.

But that was matched in the same inning when straight safeties by Cardinal's Wally Moon, Irv Noren and Stan Musial jammed the bases, setting the scene for Moon to score while Cunningham was nabbed at first.

Two followup St. Louis runs came in the second inning and one more in the third.

One final Redleg marker came in the seventh when Roy McMillan walked, reached second on a wild pitch and Temple singled him home.

In the decisive two-run second inning, singles by Amaro and Noren around Moon's double did all the damage.

Gene Green singled in Joe Cunningham, who had doubled, for the final St. Louis marker.

'Old Fellow' Causes Stir In U.S. Net Play

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)— An old fellow playing in the National Tennis Championships is beginning to cause some nail-biting among the upper crust.

His name is Vic Seixas. He won the National title in 1954 and played on a half dozen Davis Cup teams.

At the moment, he is in the round of 16 in the Nationals. He turned back Jon Douglas Tuesday, 4-6, 10-8, 6-4, 6-4.

His scheduled opponent today was Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., and then — if he gets past Mike — Ashley Cooper of Australia.

Half the quarter-final was filled Tuesday.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

Mr. Tony Randall Departs

Tony Randall, one of the three faces of Arthur Godfrey while Godfrey vacations, has departed, darn it, after two weeks of irreverent fun, much of it at the expense of the sponsors. My attention was called to Randall by two experts in the same line of work — Garry Moore who said he enjoyed Randall's programs so much "it almost made me want to get back into daytime television" and Peter Lind Hayes who said he almost fell out of bed laughing at him. That's high praise indeed.

John Crosby

I caught the act only once, on the last day. I must say it was an oasis of fun and frolic imbedded, as it was, between "Play Your Hunch" and "Top Dollar."

("On Play Your Hunch" four adults were gravely concerned over trying to guess which of three middle-aged women held a phoney as opposed to a real broom in her hands, God preserve us.)

Randall did his own commercials on the Godfrey show with such light-hearted gaiety that the Armour Co., people forbade him to talk about their products any more.

"I told the truth about creamed chip beef on toast," he said defiantly. He also spoke at some length about his wartime experiences with Spam and Spam happens to be a product of Armour's rival, Hormel.

ON HIS LAST SHOW, Friday, Randall did a parody commercial for "Veemferm—It gives you a firm veem."

"Four out of five doctors will tell you. . . It's that fifth doctor, you've got to watch. He says don't take it in under any circumstances."

There was quite a lot more of it all in that vein, so you can imagine the nervousness of sponsors at having Mr. Randall on the premises.

Commercials occupied the attention of others besides Randall on the show.

The Honeydreamers, a vocal group, did a marvellous number which consisted of bits and pieces of all the singing commercials they have ever done — and they seem to have sung them all. Gods, the free advertising that was scattered all over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Randall, a boyish comedian, has a nervous staccato delivery and a voice that sounds quite a lot like Jack Paar's, of all things. So successful has his two-week stand been that all three networks, CBS, NBC, and ABC, have queried him on whether he'd like his own permanent daytime show.

"Well — would you?" I asked.

-:-

"NO," HE SAID, in a word. "I think it'd be awfully hard work to try to be funny every day. Frankly, I'd like to do television quite often and I will. But every day — no.

"I'm off to the Coast pretty soon to fulfill some movie commitments. I'm very much in love with my stage career. That's really what I'm looking forward to doing for a full time job."

Randall is one of three performers who are taking over for the vacationing Godfrey. This is the job once filled by Peter Lind Hayes wo has since left to do his own daytime show on ABC, starting Oct. 7.

First of the Godfrey replacements was Dennis Day, Jack Benny's former singer. The third one, who is filling in now, is Ferlin Huskey, whom Randall introduced briefly at the end of the show.

STILL, IT WAS too brief an encounter to form an opinion on Mr. Huskey who is being watched narrowly by all the CBS brsss.

Huskey is suspected of having the grass roots appeal that all earnest young daytime sponsors are looking for.

The Godfrey show has taken an awful rating licking from the bingo games and I devoutly hope CBS keeps it going. It's virtually the only daytime show that makes a pretence at entertainment any more.

Daytime air once was full of solid comedy and excellent dramatic fare. Now it's foundering in soap opera and money games to the point where I find it impossible to watch.

By The Associated Press

Two painters plunged to their deaths in Charleston, a man died in a fire at Fairmont and three persons were killed in highway mishaps in West Virginia during the 24-hour post-Labor Day period.

The two painters were Wilfred Joe Miller, 27, of Charleston Rt. 1, and James H. Tinsley, 38, of Sissonville. They were painting window mouldings on the eighth floor of the Kanawha Hotel when their scaffolding broke.

The fire victim was Ben Fisher, 58, who was trapped in flames which destroyed his one - story frame home at Fairmont. The fire also destroyed a small frame dwelling next door and damaged other residences in the neighborhood.

Two men were killed and three others injured in a head-on collision on the West Virginia Turnpike about six miles south of Beckley. Killed were Herbert William Murray Jr., 19, and Robert Lyles, 18, both of Chattanooga, Tenn.

A Cabell County woman Mrs. Ella G. Marsh, about 70 of Culloden, died when she was struck by a car near her home last night. State Police said she apparently stepped directly in front of the vehicle.

Meanwhile, the charred body of a man found in the wreckage of an airplane in Marion County was identified yesterday as that of Rowan Johnston, 32, of Canton, Ohio.

The single engine, light aircraft crashed and burned on a hillside about two miles south of Farmington Sunday. Johnston reportedly was en route to visit his wife and her parents near Princeton. The identification was made by the victim's father.

Johnston was one of nine persons who were killed in state accidents during the 84-hour Labor Day weekend holiday. Five of the victims died in highway mishaps.

Canton Schools Start Classes For Bright Children

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—In classes of about 22 and in grades ranging from third through seventh, Canton's public schools inaugurate today a program for education of exceptional children.

To prepare for the experiment, approved by the Board of Education last May, individual tests were given to the 385 pupils who did best in group tests throughout the city's 22 school districts.

The 209 children who rated highest were chosen for the program. They will be scattered among three schools, and their classroom work will be an expansion of the basic elementary curriculum. They won't be shut off from the other pupils completely by the program. They'll join the rest for gym, music, assemblies and recess periods.

In interviewing the exceptional youngsters, it was found all had one thing in common — they liked to read and did read.

Mr. and Mrs. James Drugan entertained about 20 youngsters Saturday afternoon in honor of the third birthday anniversary of their son, Kanute. Prizes at games were won by Earl Robert Pierson, Kim Tennand, Linda Walton and Wendy Sue Madison. Lunch was served.

Ike Hopes His Luck At Fishing Improves

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—Vacationing President Eisenhower hopes to go fishing again today. He also hopes his luck — all bad so far in that department — improves.

The President made tentative plans based on the weather to deep-sea fish in the sound off Block Island about 25 miles south of the summer White House here on the shore of Narragansett Bay.

He fished the bay nearly four hours Monday, but caught nothing.

Needed Good Sleep

BURLINGTON N.C. (AP) — Mailman Paul Simpson had a good sleep—but after running 54 miles, who wouldn't? The marathon is an annual test that began 13 years ago for the grandfather of four. Everytime his birthday rolls around, he runs a mile for each of his years. The last jaunt took nine hours.

The Order of the Garter is the highest order of knighthood in England.

Union Bigshot Due For More Questioning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters bigshot Harold J. Gibbons faced more questioning about beatings and bombings today after describing himself as an opponent of violence in labor disputes.

Gibbons, top vice president of the Teamsters Union and ruler of its affairs in the St. Louis area, was called back for a second day of testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee.

Gibbons denied charges Tuesday that he had bought out the old officers of St. Louis Local 688 and then used that local as a springboard to power in the Teamsters Union.

As for allegations that he used a strong-arm squad, Gibbons told the committee: "At no time in all my activities in the labor movement have I ever set up anything or any group that could be construed as a goon squad."

Gibbons said it wasn't his fault that locals under his command are infested with men he conceded have long criminal records.

"If the employers hire these people, we're stuck with them," Gibbons testified. He said he must accept as a union member anyone hired by employers with who he bargains collectively.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

Mr. Tony Randall Departs

Tony Randall, one of the three faces of Arthur Godfrey while Godfrey vacations, has departed, darn it, after two weeks of irreverent fun, much of it at the expense of the sponsors. My attention was called to Randall by two experts in the same line of work — Garry Moore who said he enjoyed Randall's programs so much "it almost made me want to get back into daytime television" and Peter Lind Hayes who said he almost fell out of bed laughing at him. That's high praise indeed.

John Crosby

I caught the act only once, on the last day. I must say it was an oasis of fun and frolic imbedded, as it was, between "Play Your Hunch" and "Top Dollar."

("On Play Your Hunch" four adults were gravely concerned over trying to guess which of three middle-aged women held a phoney as opposed to a real broom in her hands, God preserve us.)

Randall did his own commercials on the Godfrey show with such light-hearted gaiety that the Armour Co., people forbade him to talk about their products any more.

"I told the truth about creamed chip beef on toast," he said defiantly. He also spoke at some length about his wartime experiences with Spam and Spam happens to be a product of Armour's rival, Hormel.

ON HIS LAST SHOW, Friday, Randall did a parody commercial for "Veemferm—It gives you a firm veem."

"Four out of five doctors will tell you. . . It's that fifth doctor, you've got to watch. He says don't take it in under any circumstances."

There was quite a lot more of it all in that vein, so you can imagine the nervousness of sponsors at having Mr. Randall on the premises.

Commercials occupied the attention of others besides Randall on the show.

The Honeydreamers, a vocal group, did a marvellous number which consisted of bits and pieces of all the singing commercials they have ever done — and they seem to have sung them all. Gods, the free advertising that was scattered all over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Randall, a boyish comedian, has a nervous staccato delivery and a voice that sounds quite a lot like Jack Paar's, of all things. So successful has his two-week stand been that all three networks, CBS, NBC, and ABC, have queried him on whether he'd like his own permanent daytime show.

"Well — would you?" I asked.

-:-

"NO," HE SAID, in a word. "I think it'd be awfully hard work to try to be funny every day. Frankly, I'd like to do television quite often and I will. But every day — no.

"I'm off to the Coast pretty soon to fulfill some movie commitments. I'm very much in love with my stage career. That's really what I'm looking forward to doing for a full time job."

Randall is one of three performers who are taking over for the vacationing Godfrey. This is the job once filled by Peter Lind Hayes wo has since left to do his own daytime show on ABC, starting Oct. 7.

First of the Godfrey replacements was Dennis Day, Jack Benny's former singer. The third one, who is filling in now, is Ferlin Huskey, whom Randall introduced briefly at the end of the show.

"Ah've been watching yew," said Mr. Huskey, twanging like a guitar. "Ah think yew done a good job. Ah hope yew keep your sponsor 'n' everything. Ah'm from Memphis, yew know."

This, I felt, could get very wearing over the long haul.

-:-

STILL, IT WAS too brief an encounter to form an opinion on Mr. Huskey who is being watched narrowly by all the CBS brsss.

Huskey is suspected of having the grass roots appeal that all earnest young daytime sponsors are looking for.

The Godfrey show has taken an awful rating licking from the bingo games and I devoutly hope CBS keeps it going. It's virtually the only daytime show that makes a pretence at entertainment any more.

Daytime air once was full of solid comedy and excellent dramatic fare. Now it's foundering in soap opera and money games to the point where I find it impossible to watch.

West Virginia Counts 6 Dead

2 Painters Plunge To Deaths In Charleston

By The Associated Press

Two painters plunged to their deaths in Charleston, a man died in a fire at Fairmont and three persons were killed in highway mishaps in West Virginia during the 24-hour post-Labor Day period.

The two painters were Wilfred Joe Miller, 27, of Charleston Rt. 1, and James H. Tinsley, 38, of Sissonville. They were painting window mouldings on the eighth floor of the Kanawha Hotel when their scaffolding broke.

The fire victim was Ben Fisher, 58, who was trapped in flames which destroyed his one - story frame home at Fairmont. The fire also destroyed a small frame dwelling next door and damaged other residences in the neighborhood.

Two men were killed and three others injured in a head-on collision on the West Virginia Turnpike about six miles south of Beckley. Killed were Herbert William Murray Jr., 19, and Robert Lyles, 18, both of Chattanooga, Tenn.

A Cabell County woman Mrs. Ella G. Marsh, about 70 of Culloden, died when she was struck by a car near her home last night. State Police said she apparently stepped directly in front of the vehicle.

Meanwhile, the charred body of a man found in the wreckage of an airplane in Marion County was identified yesterday as that of Rowan Johnston, 32, of Canton, Ohio.

The single engine, light aircraft crashed and burned on a hillside about two miles south of Farmington Sunday. Johnston reportedly was en route to visit his wife and her parents near Princeton. The identification was made by the victim's father.

Johnston was one of nine persons who were killed in state accidents during the 84-hour Labor Day weekend holiday. Five of the victims died in highway mishaps.

Canton Schools Start Classes For Bright Children

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—In classes of about 22 and in grades ranging from third through seventh, Canton's public schools inaugurate today a program for education of exceptional children.

To prepare for the experiment, approved by the Board of Education last May, individual tests were given to the 385 pupils who did best in group tests throughout the city's 22 school districts.

The 209 children who rated highest were chosen for the program. They will be scattered among three schools, and their classroom work will be an expansion of the basic elementary curriculum. They won't be shut off from the other pupils completely by the program. They'll join the rest for gym, music, assemblies and recess periods.

In interviewing the exceptional youngsters, it was found all had one thing in common — they liked to read and did read.

Salineville

Mr. and Mrs. James Drugan entertained about 20 youngsters Saturday afternoon in honor of the third birthday anniversary of their son, Kanute. Prizes at games were won by Earl Robert Pierson, Kim Tennand, Linda Walton and Wendy Sue Madison. Lunch was served.

Mrs. Mayme Gallagher of Jefferson St. is ill.

Ike Hopes His Luck At Fishing Improves

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—Vacationing President Eisenhower hopes to go fishing again today. He also hopes his luck — all bad so far in that department — improves.

The President made tentative plans based on the weather to deep-sea fish in the sound off Block Island about 25 miles south of the summer White House here on the shore of Narragansett Bay.

He fished the bay nearly four hours Monday, but caught nothing.

Needed Good Sleep

BURLINGTON N.C. (AP) — Mailman Paul Simpson had a good sleep—but after running 54 miles, who wouldn't? The marathon is an annual test that began 13 years ago for the grandfather of four. Everytime his birthday rolls around, he runs a mile for each of his years. The last jaunt took nine hours.

Union Bigshot Due For More Questioning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters bigshot Harold J. Gibbons faced more questioning about beatings and bombings today after describing himself as an opponent of violence in labor disputes.

Gibbons, top vice president of the Teamsters Union and ruler of its affairs in the St. Louis area, was called back for a second day of testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee.

Gibbons denied charges Tuesday that he had bought out the old officers of St. Louis Local 688 and then used that local as a springboard to power in the Teamsters Union.

As for allegations that he used a strong-arm squad, Gibbons told the committee: "At no time in all my activities in the labor movement have I ever set up anything or any group that could be construed as a goon squad."

Gibbons said it wasn't his fault that locals under his command are infested with men he conceded have long criminal records.

"If the employers hire these people, we're stuck with them," Gibbons testified. He said he must accept as a union member anyone hired by employers with who he bargains collectively.

Ohio Bell's Rate Base Cut $57.8 Million

Firm Disappointed; Asks Rate Hike Of Over $28 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Utilities Commission staff members cut $57,815,529 from the rate base of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. which is seeking an annual rate increase of more than 28 million dollars.

A commission spokesman said today that if the company gets the higher rates it wants it will earn a rate of return of 7.09 per cent on its rate base recommended by commission engineers.

L. T. Pendleton, vice president of Ohio Bell, expressed immediate disappointment at the property valuation found by the commission staff.

He said: "But now is not the time to argue the point. We shall produce full support of our figures at the formal hearings before the commission itself."

The commission indicated the public hearings on the rate increase application cannot begin before Monday, Oct. 13. That is because the company and cities fighting the rate increase application have 30 days to file objections to the commission's staff report, issued today.

After that, at least 10 days must elapse before a hearing can begin and either side could ask more time to study the staff report.

The commission staff rate base valuation is $578,287,865 compared to the $636,103,424 valuation set by the company for its property used in its business inside Ohio.

Commission accountants found that Ohio Bell's present rates give the company a 4.82 per cent rate of return on the commission staff's rate base.

The company in its rate application, and its own rate base, claimed its rate of return for 1957 was 4.37 per cent and that if higher rates to subscribers are granted it would earn 6.43 per cent.

Pendleton in a formal statement after the lengthy report was issued, said the staff report "in the over-all clearly justifies our position that rate relief is needed." He said that except for the difference in property valuation the commission staff report and company figures largely agree.

"Our application is based upon revenues and expenses for 1957, and inasmuch as the company's earnings have declined still further since that time, we are looking forward to a prompt hearing of the case," Pendleton said.

Under Ohio law the public utility is entitled to earn a fair and reasonable rate of return on its rate base valuation. The commission seldom has approved a rate of return in excess of six per cent.

2 Hit By Polio

CLEVELAND (AP) — County Hospital has added as polio patients a year-old New London boy and a Lorain woman of 28, bringing to 11 the number of infantile paralysis patients admitted this year. Firemen's Quick Work Frees Boy's Trapped Horse

NORTHRIDGE, Calif. (AP)—A horse lies trapped on a railroad trestle. His owner, a tearful boy of 8, screams for help. From the distance comes the ominous hoot of a freight's air horn.

This was the dramatic scene Tuesday on the Southern Pacific right-of-way after Denny Hayes tried to ride his 10-year-old horse Buck across the trestle.

Firemen, called by neighbors, rushed to the scene. They phoned the railroad. By the time the freight arrived a track workman had placed on the track a torpedo that warned the engineer to halt.

Workmen loosened the ties, and Denny comforted his horse: "It's all right, boy. We'll get you out."

Seven firemen, cradling Buck's belly with their arms, lifted him clear. Buck—unhurt except for a scratched leg — was led off the trestle on its wooden sidewalk.

He and Denny returned to their nearby home. The ties were replaced and the freight rolled on, 45 minutes late.

Drawing Funds Gone, Fastest Miler Cautious

LONDON (AP) — Australian miler Herb Elliott, valued at $250,000 in the professional market, runs in London today for nothing.

And to preserve his amateur status he has to stay in an inexpensive boarding house instead of a plush hotel befitting a champion.

Reason: The 20-year-old Aussie exhausted his 28-day limit for drawing expenses early in August.

He ran his fabulous 3:54.5 mile in Dublin Aug. 6. Since then he's been paying his own way through Europe, and watching every cent.

The crew-cut Australian, fastest man on earth over a mile and 1,500 meters, could be suspended for professionalism for accepting expenses from any source.

The Australian's appearance today at the White City Stadium has boosted ticket sales to 40,000.

Among others, he will be up against Derek Ibbotson of Britain, who ran 3:57.2 for the mile a year ago, and another sub-4-minute miler, Brian Hewson.

Eaton Talks To Red Chief

Says Big Business In U.S. Against War

MOSCOW (AP) — Cyrus Eaton, Cleveland industrialist and advocate of closer ties between the Soviet Union and the United States, has told Nikita Khruschev, America's big businessmen don't want war.

Eaton had a 95-minute interview with the Soviet premier Tuesday at the Kremlin.

The American said he told Khrushchev that American industrialists, frequently charged with being warmongers by the Soviet press, do not want to pay the higher taxes a war would entail.

"I can understand that and I can believe it," Eaton said Khrushchev replied.

The Soviet premier in turn told Eaton that the arms race is an expensive proposition that the Soviet Union wants to end, particularly to escape the expense of continually developing new weapons.

Khrushchev told Eaton he knows the American people want peace but he is not sure about the U.S. government. He added that he felt the State Department is antagonistic toward the Soviet Union.

Eaton is visiting Russia as a guest of the Soviet Ministry of Agriculture.

President Vetoes $616,912 Grant To Findlay Farm

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower Tuesday vetoed a Congressional grant of $616,912 to the Cooper Tire and Rubber Co. of Findlay, Ohio. The firm had charged it had lost money on seven contracts with the Army at the beginning of the Korean Conflict.

The President, who pointed out that the company made a net profit of more than $54,000 on 35 other government contracts in 1950-52, said in his veto message:

"From the government's standpoint, it would be inequitable to grant relief to the company with respect to the seven contracts on which it sustained losses, without giving consideration to the 28 on which it made profits. The granting of relief in this case would also be discriminatory against many other contractors who sustained losses under fixed price contracts during the early part of the Korean Conflict."

30 New Teachers Make City Tour

"Welcome to the East Liverpool area," the Chamber of Commerce said Tuesday at a tour and luncheon at which it entertained approximately 30 new teachers in the city and Beaver Local school systems.

William B. Cooper, left, Chamber president, exchanges handshakes with Miss Lynda Pelton of Cleveland, girls' physical education teacher at Beaver Local High School, and Mitchell Smith, also formerly of Cleveland, grips the hand of James A. Locke Jr., at right, chairman of the Chamber's public education committee. Smith will teach art and English at East Liverpool High School.

A tour of scenic spots and civic buildings preceded a luncheon at Peterson's Restaurant. Traveling in a caravan of cars furnished by the East Liverpool Auto Dealers Association, the teachers saw the panoramic view of the Ohio Valley from Pleasant Heights, drove past City Hospital and crossed the Newell Bridge for a look at East Liverpool from the West Virginia side.

Then they were taken through Thompson Park and to East End via Anderson Blvd. and Park Way. The auto caravan returned to downtown East Liverpool via the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." The nine-car caravan was escorted by a police cruiser.

At the luncheon were about 30 teachers, 7 Chamber members and 8 men who drove in the auto caravan. Arrangements for use of the autos were made by Harry Y. George, head of the dealers' association.

At the luncheon, Cooper extended the welcome to the teachers. The invocation was given by the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of the First Presbyterian Church.

The teachers were taken on the tour after morning meetings in which they prepared for the start of classes today. After the luncheon, they were returned to their buildings for afternoon sessions with school administrators.

Chamber members who assisted in the tour and attended the luncheon, in addition to Locke, were: Martin Gluchow, Edwin Maloney, Bert Wakefield, Cooper, Paul Bloor and E. R. Chandler, manager.

Operations Of Child Center Outlined At Chester Kiwanis

The work of aiding children in Hancock and Columbiana Counties with emotional, learning or behavior problems was outlined at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall.

Elmer Namy, psychologist of the East Liverpool Child Counselling Center, spoke on the operations of the center which was organized in 1954.

Namy said 60 per cent of the children referred to the center have improved. In cases where the problems of the youngsters cannot be handled by the center, they are referred to other agencies.

The fee for the center's services is $2 for the first visit and $1 for each visit afterward. If families are unable to pay, the fee is waived. Funds to operate the center are raised by donations from Parent-Teacher groups, clubs, individuals and other organizations.

The center has a testing program and has tested children from 21 months old to 18 years. The average age of youngsters tested is 10.

Namy said the purpose of the center is to assist teachers and parents.

Dean Bryan, president, said the recent family picnic with the Weirton Kiwanis Club will be an annual event.

A letter was read from Robert Elphinstone, who thanked the club for sponsoring him to a state conservation camp in August

The Board of Directors named Charles Duncan chairman of the annual pancake supper to be held Nov. 5-6 at the City Hall.

Court Grants Writ In Attorney Fees Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court granted a temporary writ of prohibition pending disposition of a request to prevent the state industrial commission from setting attorney fees in workmen's compensation cases without conducting hearings.

The action was filed by Robert E. Teaford, a Columbus attorney.

Attorneys said the action stems from commission approval of a lump sum settlement to pay a claimant's debts, including attorney fees, without a hearing. Statute requires a hearing before the commission can set attorney fees in compensation cases.

Damage Only Slight In Danish Castle Fire

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Somebody tried to set fire early today to Christiansborg Castle, seat of the Danish Parliament. Damage was slight.

Police said the blaze probably was the work of a firebug, perhaps a boy who wanted some excitement. In the last week, a 15-year-old boy has confessed setting fires to nine buildings in the town of Vejle, and some police sources thought the Copenhagen arsonist might have been inspired by the confession.

Wrecking Firm Begins Razing Moose Building

Razing of the former Moose Lodge building on E. 4th St., a city landmark, was started by Christy & Williamson today to clear the way for a private parking lot.

When the work of demolishing the 70-year-old building, is completed, the lot will be graded to the Washington St. level and will be used for Review employes' parking. The Review purchased the building several years ago.

The three - story brick structure has been occupied by the Moose for more than 40 years. It was erected about 1888 by George Wells, who owned the farm where the Homer Laughlin China Co. now stands, Frank E. Grosshans, former municipal judge, recalled.

The main floor was the office for the Post Office for approximately 20 years until the new building was erected on E. 5th St. and Broadway in 1909. It was known for years as the "Post Office Building."

The News Review, a predecessor of today's Review, had its news and business offices on the second floor and the basement contained the pressroom. The newspaper remained in the building until 1901 when it moved to Washington St.

The building later was sold to Will Harker and stood idle for some time after the Post Office moved. It later was occupied as a meat market and grocery.

The Moose moved into the building in 1915 and remained there until last week when the move was made to a new lodge home on E. 3rd St., about half a block from the present site.

Eaton Talks To Red Chief

Says Big Business In U.S. Against War

MOSCOW (AP) — Cyrus Eaton, Cleveland industrialist and advocate of closer ties between the Soviet Union and the United States, has told Nikita Khruschev, America's big businessmen don't want war.

Eaton had a 95-minute interview with the Soviet premier Tuesday at the Kremlin.

The American said he told Khrushchev that American industrialists, frequently charged with being warmongers by the Soviet press, do not want to pay the higher taxes a war would entail.

"I can understand that and I can believe it," Eaton said Khrushchev replied.

The Soviet premier in turn told Eaton that the arms race is an expensive proposition that the Soviet Union wants to end, particularly to escape the expense of continually developing new weapons.

Khrushchev told Eaton he knows the American people want peace but he is not sure about the U.S. government. He added that he felt the State Department is antagonistic toward the Soviet Union.

Eaton is visiting Russia as a guest of the Soviet Ministry of Agriculture.

President Vetoes $616,912 Grant To Findlay Farm

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower Tuesday vetoed a Congressional grant of $616,912 to the Cooper Tire and Rubber Co. of Findlay, Ohio. The firm had charged it had lost money on seven contracts with the Army at the beginning of the Korean Conflict.

The President, who pointed out that the company made a net profit of more than $54,000 on 35 other government contracts in 1950-52, said in his veto message:

"From the government's standpoint, it would be inequitable to grant relief to the company with respect to the seven contracts on which it sustained losses, without giving consideration to the 28 on which it made profits. The granting of relief in this case would also be discriminatory against many other contractors who sustained losses under fixed price contracts during the early part of the Korean Conflict."

30 New Teachers Make City Tour

"Welcome to the East Liverpool area," the Chamber of Commerce said Tuesday at a tour and luncheon at which it entertained approximately 30 new teachers in the city and Beaver Local school systems.

William B. Cooper, left, Chamber president, exchanges handshakes with Miss Lynda Pelton of Cleveland, girls' physical education teacher at Beaver Local High School, and Mitchell Smith, also formerly of Cleveland, grips the hand of James A. Car Assembled In Thievery To Look Stripped

By the time the rightful owners claim tires, wheels, hubcaps and other accessories on an old auto parked in the police garage, it may look like a stripped candidate for the junk yard.

Two Lisbon area youths arrested in the car Monday night, shortly after they stole a fender skirt off a parked car in East End, admitted to about a dozen other cases of auto - stripping in other Columbiana County communities.

At least two of the wheels and most of the other shiny chrome accessories on the car represent some of the loot from their thefts, Police Chief Americo Radeschi said. Since most of the thefts apparently occurred in the northern county area, the old auto may be taken to Lisbon to allow the sheriff's office to locate the owners.

The hubcaps on the front wheels were stolen from autos in Lisbon and the pair on the rear were taken at Salem, he said. The rear wheels and tires also were stolen, but the place of the theft has not been pinpointed yet.

In the trunk of the old green auto are several pairs of fender skirts, about a half a dozen more hubcaps, shiny chrome parts off of fancy auto exhaust systems and other gadgets dear to the heart of the hot - rodder.

The interior of the car is littered with tools, especially screwdrivers and small wrenches used for removing accessories.

William G. Moore, 18, of Box 45, Lisbon, was given a 60-day term in County Jail Tuesday when he pleaded guilty to theft of the fender skirt from the auto of James P. Powers of Glenmoor. The 1957 model was parked outside the home of American Legion Post 374 on Pennsylvania Ave. Moore's companion, a 17-year-old from Lisbon R. D. 1, will be referred to Juvenile Court.

Meanwhile, Chief Radeschi commended Patrolman Paul Carter, who arrested the pair 6 minutes after police received a report that two youths had stolen Powers' fender skirt.

The theft was reported at 10:20. At 10:26, Carter had the pair in custody. He halted them on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." on a partial description of the car furnished by the Legion members.

The Glenmoor man's fender skirt was found in the auto, along with loot from several other thefts. The boys admitted to stripping parts from five parked autos in Salem and two more in Lisbon. They also admitted taking parts from autos on a used car lot on Route 45 and robberies of a junk yard on Route 164 and a strip mine near Elkton.

Jefferson Jails City Man For Mine Thefts

Hubert Cline, 26, of 633 Jefferson St. is being held today in Jefferson County Jail at Steubenville on a charge of grand larceny in connection with the theft of some $5,000 worth of equipment from a Brush Creek area mine Thursday.

Cline was arrested here Tuesday night on an affadavit filed by Anthony Abrutz, owner of the coal mine at Brush Creek.

He is charged with the theft of machines, motors, trolly wires, corrugated sheeting and other items. Cline is to be arraigned in Steubenville Municipal Court.

Cline was taken into custody about 6 p. m. at his home by Chief Americo Radeschi and Patrolman William Devon on a warrant issued in Jefferson County.

An unidentified truck driver was blamed for a mishap on W 6th St. Tuesday in which a local youth's auto collided with the parked car of a Newell woman.

A 1954 sedan operated by James Bise, 16, of St. Clair Ave. hit a parked 1953 coupe owned by Mary A. Jobe, 501 5th St., Newell, damaging the right side, officers said. Settlement Seen Near In Race Track Dispute

A settlement was reported near today between Waterford Park officials and representatives of Race Track Local Union 101 who struck the Newell track in July in a bid to organize mutuel window employes and others.

A track official said that "things look real good" and that negotiations were expected to be completed definitely today, following a meeting between union officials.

Mutuel clerks belonging to Local 101 went on strike in July and set up picket lines in protest of employment of non - union clerks. The union turned down a recent track offer of giving 40 of the 140 mutuel window jobs to the 97 strikers.

The Waterford official also said that if negotiations are completed on present terms women mutuel employes will not be hired for the meet which opens Monday for 48 days. Some 120 women had applied for jobs.

Car Assembled In Thievery To Look Stripped

By the time the rightful owners claim tires, wheels, hubcaps and other accessories on an old auto parked in the police garage, it may look like a stripped candidate for the junk yard.

Two Lisbon area youths arrested in the car Monday night, shortly after they stole a fender skirt off a parked car in East End, admitted to about a dozen other cases of auto - stripping in other Columbiana County communities.

At least two of the wheels and most of the other shiny chrome accessories on the car represent some of the loot from their thefts, Police Chief Americo Radeschi said. Since most of the thefts apparently occurred in the northern county area, the old auto may be taken to Lisbon to allow the sheriff's office to locate the owners.

The hubcaps on the front wheels were stolen from autos in Lisbon and the pair on the rear were taken at Salem, he said. The rear wheels and tires also were stolen, but the place of the theft has not been pinpointed yet.

In the trunk of the old green auto are several pairs of fender skirts, about a half a dozen more hubcaps, shiny chrome parts off of fancy auto exhaust systems and other gadgets dear to the heart of the hot - rodder.

The interior of the car is littered with tools, especially screwdrivers and small wrenches used for removing accessories.

William G. Moore, 18, of Box 45, Lisbon, was given a 60-day term in County Jail Tuesday when he pleaded guilty to theft of the fender skirt from the auto of James P. Powers of Glenmoor. The 1957 model was parked outside the home of American Legion Post 374 on Pennsylvania Ave. Moore's companion, a 17-year-old from Lisbon R. D. 1, will be referred to Juvenile Court.

Meanwhile, Chief Radeschi commended Patrolman Paul Carter, who arrested the pair 6 minutes after police received a report that two youths had stolen Powers' fender skirt.

The theft was reported at 10:20. At 10:26, Carter had the pair in custody. He halted them on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." on a partial description of the car furnished by the Legion members.

The Glenmoor man's fender skirt was found in the auto, along with loot from several other thefts. The boys admitted to stripping parts from five parked autos in Salem and two more in Lisbon. They also admitted taking parts from autos on a used car lot on Route 45 and robberies of a junk yard on Route 164 and a strip mine near Elkton.

Jefferson Jails City Man For Mine Thefts

Hubert Cline, 26, of 633 Jefferson St. is being held today in Jefferson County Jail at Steubenville on a charge of grand larceny in connection with the theft of some $5,000 worth of equipment from a Brush Creek area mine Thursday.

Cline was arrested here Tuesday night on an affadavit filed by Anthony Abrutz, owner of the coal mine at Brush Creek.

He is charged with the theft of machines, motors, trolly wires, corrugated sheeting and other items. Cline is to be arraigned in Steubenville Municipal Court.

Cline was taken into custody about 6 p. m. at his home by Chief Americo Radeschi and Patrolman William Devon on a warrant issued in Jefferson County.

Truck Driver Blamed For Crash Of 2 Autos

An unidentified truck driver was blamed for a mishap on W 6th St. Tuesday in which a local youth's auto collided with the parked car of a Newell woman.

A 1954 sedan operated by James Bise, 16, of St. Clair Ave. hit a parked 1953 coupe owned by Mary A. Jobe, 501 5th St., Newell, damaging the right side, officers said. Bise told police a green truck crossed his path as he drove east in the left lane, causing him to slam on the brakes. He said the back end of his auto swerved and hit the parked car.

A collision on Jackson St. Tuesday at 5:10 p. m. damaged a 1957 sedan operated by Robert Gott, 28, of R.D. 2 and a 1956 auto driven by Collin J. Morton, 228½ W. 5th St., police said. Morton was pulling from the curb as Gott passed, officers said.

Settlement Seen Near In Race Track Dispute

A settlement was reported near today between Waterford Park officials and representatives of Race Track Local Union 101 who struck the Newell track in July in a bid to organize mutuel window employes and others.

A track official said that "things look real good" and that negotiations were expected to be completed definitely today, following a meeting between union officials.

Mutuel clerks belonging to Local 101 went on strike in July and set up picket lines in protest of employment of non - union clerks. The union turned down a recent track offer of giving 40 of the 140 mutuel window jobs to the 97 strikers.

The Waterford official also said that if negotiations are completed on present terms women mutuel employes will not be hired for the meet which opens Monday for 48 days. Some 120 women had applied for jobs.

Smith & Phillips
YOU CAN
Trade-In Your Old Furniture
AS YOU WOULD YOUR OLD CAR
Read The Facts

Now your old furniture can help pay for the beautiful new furniture you've been wanting.

"The trouble with furniture" people say "is that it costs too much and lasts too long."
Soundly built furniture seems to refuse to "wear out". Relatively few families are in a position to discard usable furniture, to give it away or sell it for peanuts, in order to refurnish their homes with the beautiful new things they see in our store and in our advertisements. That's what makes this announcement of Smith and Phillips Trade-In plan of such significance to homemakers in this area.

Smith & Phillips will appraise your old furniture, tell you how large a trade-in allowance you can receive.
No "gimmicks," no "sleight of hand," no "flat allowances" offered regardless of the value of your furniture, no prices inflated to absorb the allowance you receive. You dial Smith & Phillips FU 5-1215 We send an appraiser to your home without the slightest obligation to you whatsoever. You then visit your Smith & Phillips store. You choose the furniture you want from one of the largest, finest, most value-conscious collections in East Liverpool. You deduct your Trade-In allowance from the prices on the tags—and if you prefer, you arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

Some questions and answers
We've been discussing this plan with some of our customers. They've asked some questions that may be occurring to you now. Here they are!

Can I come in to see whether I can find the new furniture I want before you send an appraiser to my home?
Of course. You are decidedly welcome to visit your Smith & Phillips store (and if you haven't shopped Smith & Phillips lately, you're in for an eye-opening treat!) After you have made your selection, we can arrange to have an appraiser call at your home.

What if I decide not to make a purchase after you make an appraisal?
You are under no obligation at any time. If you decide not to make a purchase, we'll thank you for having given us an opportunity to be of service—and hope that you'll give us another opportunity some time soon.

May I trade-in any suite of furniture I own toward the purchase of a new suite?
Yes. For example, you can trade-in your old living room suite toward the purchase of a new living room suite; you can trade in your old bedroom for a new bedroom. Or you can trade-in your old bedroom suite for a new living room.

And here's the $64,000 question! If your prices are as low as they possibly can be, how can you afford to offer trade-in allowances?
You know what happens to your old car when you trade it in. That's exactly what will happen to your old furniture. We plan to recondition it and resell it through our Used Furniture Departments. Our trade-in allowance will not be price discounts. They represent actual value we expect to recover through the resale of your old furniture.

May I trade-in my furniture and not purchase anything immediately?
Yes. For example, you may wish to have that old sofa out of your way, but may not be able to purchase anything right away. We will appraise the sofa and allow you an amount toward the purchase of a certain amount in the future. Let us say we allow $30.00 for the old sofa on the purchase of $150.00 at any time in the future. Your account will be marked with a credit of $30.00. If your next purchase is for $75.00 we apportion the credit or in other words, we will allow you $15.00 at that time and you will still have $15.00 credit due on $75.00 worth of purchase. Many persons have taken advantage of this unique trade-in plan in the past, but some of you may not have known of it.

Smith & Phillips
YOU CAN
Trade-In Your Old Furniture
AS YOU WOULD YOUR OLD CAR
Read The Facts

Now your old furniture can help pay for the beautiful new furniture you've been wanting.

"The trouble with furniture" people say "is that it costs too much and lasts too long."
Soundly built furniture seems to refuse to "wear out". Relatively few families are in a position to discard usable furniture, to give it away or sell it for peanuts, in order to refurnish their homes with the beautiful new things they see in our store and in our advertisements. That's what makes this announcement of Smith and Phillips Trade-In plan of such significance to homemakers in this area.

Smith & Phillips will appraise your old furniture, tell you how large a trade-in allowance you can receive.
No "gimmicks," no "sleight of hand," no "flat allowances" offered regardless of the value of your furniture, no prices inflated to absorb the allowance you receive. You dial Smith & Phillips FU 5-1215 We send an appraiser to your home without the slightest obligation to you whatsoever. You then visit your Smith & Phillips store. You choose the furniture you want from one of the largest, finest, most value-conscious collections in East Liverpool. You deduct your Trade-In allowance from the prices on the tags—and if you prefer, you arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

Some questions and answers
We've been discussing this plan with some of our customers. They've asked some questions that may be occurring to you now. Here they are!

Can I come in to see whether I can find the new furniture I want before you send an appraiser to my home?
Of course. You are decidedly welcome to visit your Smith & Phillips store (and if you haven't shopped Smith & Phillips lately, you're in for an eye-opening treat!) After you have made your selection, we can arrange to have an appraiser call at your home.

What if I decide not to make a purchase after you make an appraisal?
You are under no obligation at any time. If you decide not to make a purchase, we'll thank you for having given us an opportunity to be of service—and hope that you'll give us another opportunity some time soon.

May I trade-in any suite of furniture I own toward the purchase of a new suite?
Yes. For example, you can trade-in your old living room suite toward the purchase of a new living room suite; you can trade in your old bedroom for a new bedroom. Or you can trade-in your old bedroom suite for a new living room.

And here's the $64,000 question! If your prices are as low as they possibly can be, how can you afford to offer trade-in allowances?
You know what happens to your old car when you trade it in. That's exactly what will happen to your old furniture. We plan to recondition it and resell it through our Used Furniture Departments. Our trade-in allowance will not be price discounts. They represent actual value we expect to recover through the resale of your old furniture.

May I trade-in my furniture and not purchase anything immediately?
Yes. For example, you may wish to have that old sofa out of your way, but may not be able to purchase anything right away. We will appraise the sofa and allow you an amount toward the purchase of a certain amount in the future. Let us say we allow $30.00 for the old sofa on the purchase of $150.00 at any time in the future. Your account will be marked with a credit of $30.00. If your next purchase is for $75.00 we apportion the credit or in other words, we will allow you $15.00 at that time and you will still have $15.00 credit due on $75.00 worth of purchase. Many persons have taken advantage of this unique trade-in plan in the past, but some of you may not have known of it.

Business More Confident

Recovery Trend Mounts

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—As business winds up for its autumnal pitch the odds today seem to favor steady and sure recovery.

But there are factors that could thrown it off form.

Here is a report on the business outlook as gleaned from summer developments:

Steel output is rising and auto makers are set for a spurt of new model production. There is the threat of an auto workers strike. If it develops, the steel and many other industries will feel it.

The long period of inventory cutting appears nearing an end. Some companies have resumed ordering hand-to-mouth. Others are rebuilding stocks in belief that business will get better steadily.

Government spending is on the rise, making more work in many industries. But in recent days there's been a turn in Washington to talk of economizing again. One of the things giving the recession an initial nudge was an economy wave in government spending.

The decline in earnings has been halted by many companies and some are definitely on the upgrade again.

Business confidence in better sales and profits this fall and winter pops up whenever executives are questioned on the outlook.

The same confidence — tied in with belief in more inflation — has sparked much of the gains in the stock market.

These two forces work on each other. Brighter business prospects pep up the stock traders. And a rising stock market always kindles more confidence among business men and consumers.

Only the extremely cautious warn of the dangers of over-confidence of what might happen to public psychology if the recovery isn't as spirited as hoped for.

And they note that, for all its new talk of confidence, business itself hasn't changed yet from a program of less spending for plant and equipment to one of further expansion.

Consumer income is rising and seems likely to continue to do so. What consumers will do with this high income after taxes will spell what course business takes this fall.

If they spend a little more for the durables — for instance, the new auto models — the recovery seems in the bag.

If business, in turn, spends more for inventory, for better equipment, the recovery then will be sizable.

Adding it all up, business is looking for a good fall and winter.

Adm. Rickover's Wife Blasts Navy Brass In Snub Of Mate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cherchez la femme is getting a new meaning in Washington.

If you can't get a story from a government official involved in a controversy, try his wife.

The trend started last year with Mrs. Jessie Wilson, wife of then Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson.

It spread to Mrs. Rachel Adams, wife of chief presidential aide Sherman Adams.

And the latest lady to take up the cudgels for her husband via a newspaper interview was Mrs. Ruth Rickover. She is the wife of Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, sometimes called the Father of the Atomic Submarine.

When her husband was not invited to a White House ceremony acclaiming the polar voyage of the atomic sub Nautilus, she let off steam to a reporter. She blasted Navy brass for the alleged snub and said they were determined to "hurt my husband for his independence and free spirit."

Snubs, Mrs. Rickover said, affected her as well and she claimed she had been kept from christening atomic subs her husband helped build.

Rickover himself wasn't talking, and when his wife had her say once she too refused to talk to other reporters.

Things got so hot that Rickover told inquiring news people his wife was going out of town to avoid the fuss. "She won't talk anymore," he promised.

Woman Wins Her Fight On Hearing Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Never woman, some say.

Validity of that admonition recently got a boost on the State Liquor Board.

Miss Esther R. Hardy of Fremont, board chairman since mid-1953, won a long-standing argument with attorney members over the conduct of hearings.

The former school principal and state representative insisted that hearing for liquor law violators could be conducted by only two of the four board members. Others maintained that at least three should be present.

Came the day when only Miss Hardy and E. G. Schuessler of Columbus were on hand for hearings involving a few score witnesses and others who had traveled to Columbus in bad weather.

Miss Hardy proceeded with the hearing to spare so many people the expense and inconvenience of returning for postponed hearings. She also asked Atty. Gen. William Saxbe for a ruling on legality of the procedure.

Saxbe's ruling upheld Miss Hardy. He said individual board members could hold hearings and submit the record to other members for review and decision.

Miss Hardy said the board's hearing docket is current and that it will not be necessary for inings at this time. But she added that in the future, hearings will proceed when only two board members are present, to avoid postponements.

Miss Hardy is not an attorney. The other three members are lawyers.

Space Navigators May Have To Get Sleep In 'Catnaps'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prospective space navigators may have to learn to take their sleep in "catnaps" ranging from a half minute to five minutes.

That's the word from Dr. Saul Sells of Texas Christian University, who formerly was professor of medical psychology at the Air Force's School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Field.

"If a man is required to remain alert for extended periods without sleep in a space ship," he told a reporter, "he must learn beforehand how to cat-nap—that is, how to adapt to a sleeping-waking cycle of very brief, on-and-off periods of sleeping.

"Instead of getting his eight hours sleep at one stretch, the idea would be to take it in naps ranging from a half minute to five minutes extending over a 24-hour period."

Dispute Over Garage Idles 19,000 Workers

EAST CHICAGO, Ind. (AP) — A dispute over relocation of a company garage today brought a shutdown of the Indiana Harbor works of Inland Steel Co. and the idling of some 19,000 workers.

A company spokesman said the dispute involved 200 truck drivers who protested relocation of a garage within the huge plant. Pickets appeared at the gates.

The spokesman added that the pickets carried signs bearing the name of Local 1010 of the United Steelworkers Union.

Draws Life Term

POMEROY, Ohio (AP)—George L. Offutt, 22, of near Minorsville, drew a life prison sentence Tuesday for the second-degree murder of his 21-year-old wife, Donna Jean. Offutt was accused of beating his wife with a wrench, placing her in a car and letting the car roll over the edge of a hill.

Family Gets Chills From Ice 'Delivered'

MADISON TOWNSHIP, N. J. (AP)—A 70-pound cake of ice was delivered at the home of Dominick Bacigalupo Tuesday night, and the family still has the shivers.

The ice came by air.

It hurtled through the roof, crashed through the attic, burst through the kitchen ceiling and landed on the kitchen table.

Authorities were at a loss to explain where the ice came from.

Airports in the area said airliners do not carry ice, and the Newark Weather Bureau and the Rutgers University meteorology department agreed that atmospheric conditions could not have formed it.

PLEASE DON'T ...hurt my little girl!

TODAY, my daughter, who is seven years old, started to school as usual. She wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is "Scoot", sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved "goodbye" and started off to the halls of learning.

Last night we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her . . . the girl with the yellow curls . . . and the girl across the aisle who makes funny faces. She told me about her teacher, who has eyes in the back of her head . . . and about the trees in the school yard . . . and about the big girls who don't believe in Santa Claus. We talked about other things, tremendously vital, unimportant things; then we studied spelling, reading and arithmetic . . . and then to bed.

She's upstairs now . . . sound asleep, with "Princess" (that's her doll) cuddled in her right arm. You folks wouldn't hurt her would you? You see, I'm her Father. When her doll is broken or her finger cut, or her head gets bumped, I can fix it . . . But when she starts to school, when she walks across the street, then she's in your hands.

She's a sweet little girl and we're proud of her. She can run like a deer and darts about like a chipmunk. She likes to swim and hike with her Daddy, on Sunday afternoons. But we can't be with her all the time . . . So please help us look out for her. Please drive carefully, please drive slowly past the schools and intersections . . . and please remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

Business More Confident

Recovery Trend Mounts

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—As business winds up for its autumnal pitch the odds today seem to favor steady and sure recovery.

But there are factors that could thrown it off form.

Here is a report on the business outlook as gleaned from summer developments:

Steel output is rising and auto makers are set for a spurt of new model production. There is the threat of an auto workers strike. If it develops, the steel and many other industries will feel it.

The long period of inventory cutting appears nearing an end. Some companies have resumed ordering hand-to-mouth. Others are rebuilding stocks in belief that business will get better steadily.

Government spending is on the rise, making more work in many industries. But in recent days there's been a turn in Washington to talk of economizing again. One of the things giving the recession an initial nudge was an economy wave in government spending.

The decline in earnings has been halted by many companies and some are definitely on the upgrade again.

Business confidence in better sales and profits this fall and winter pops up whenever executives are questioned on the outlook.

The same confidence — tied in with belief in more inflation — has sparked much of the gains in the stock market.

These two forces work on each other. Brighter business prospects pep up the stock traders. And a rising stock market always kindles more confidence among business men and consumers.

Only the extremely cautious warn of the dangers of over-confidence of what might happen to public psychology if the recovery isn't as spirited as hoped for.

And they note that, for all its new talk of confidence, business itself hasn't changed yet from a program of less spending for plant and equipment to one of further expansion.

Consumer income is rising and seems likely to continue to do so. What consumers will do with this high income after taxes will spell what course business takes this fall.

If they spend a little more for the durables — for instance, the new auto models — the recovery seems in the bag.

If business, in turn, spends more for inventory, for better equipment, the recovery then will be sizable.

Adding it all up, business is looking for a good fall and winter.

Adm. Rickover's Wife Blasts Navy Brass In Snub Of Mate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cherchez la femme is getting a new meaning in Washington.

If you can't get a story from a government official involved in a controversy, try his wife.

The trend started last year with Mrs. Jessie Wilson, wife of then Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson.

It spread to Mrs. Rachel Adams, wife of chief presidential aide Sherman Adams.

And the latest lady to take up the cudgels for her husband via a newspaper interview was Mrs. Ruth Rickover. She is the wife of Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, sometimes called the Father of the Atomic Submarine.

When her husband was not invited to a White House ceremony acclaiming the polar voyage of the atomic sub Nautilus, she let off steam to a reporter. She blasted Navy brass for the alleged snub and said they were determined to "hurt my husband for his independence and free spirit."

Snubs, Mrs. Rickover said, affected her as well and she claimed she had been kept from christening atomic subs her husband helped build.

Rickover himself wasn't talking, and when his wife had her say once she too refused to talk to other reporters.

Things got so hot that Rickover told inquiring news people his wife was going out of town to avoid the fuss. "She won't talk anymore," he promised.

Woman Wins Her Fight On Hearing Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Never woman, some say.

Validity of that admonition recently got a boost on the State Liquor Board.

Miss Esther R. Hardy of Fremont, board chairman since mid-1953, won a long-standing argument with attorney members over the conduct of hearings.

The former school principal and state representative insisted that hearing for liquor law violators could be conducted by only two of the four board members. Others maintained that at least three should be present.

Came the day when only Miss Hardy and E. G. Schuessler of Columbus were on hand for hearings involving a few score witnesses and others who had traveled to Columbus in bad weather.

Miss Hardy proceeded with the hearing to spare so many people the expense and inconvenience of returning for postponed hearings. She also asked Atty. Gen. William Saxbe for a ruling on legality of the procedure.

Saxbe's ruling upheld Miss Hardy. He said individual board members could hold hearings and submit the record to other members for review and decision.

Miss Hardy said the board's hearing docket is current and that it will not be necessary for inings at this time. But she added that in the future, hearings will proceed when only two board members are present, to avoid postponements.

Miss Hardy is not an attorney. The other three members are lawyers.

Space Navigators May Have To Get Sleep In 'Catnaps'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prospective space navigators may have to learn to take their sleep in "catnaps" ranging from a half minute to five minutes.

That's the word from Dr. Saul Sells of Texas Christian University, who formerly was professor of medical psychology at the Air Force's School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Field.

"If a man is required to remain alert for extended periods without sleep in a space ship," he told a reporter, "he must learn beforehand how to cat-nap—that is, how to adapt to a sleeping-waking cycle of very brief, on-and-off periods of sleeping.

"Instead of getting his eight hours sleep at one stretch, the idea would be to take it in naps ranging from a half minute to five minutes extending over a 24-hour period."

Dispute Over Garage Idles 19,000 Workers

EAST CHICAGO, Ind. (AP) — A dispute over relocation of a company garage today brought a shutdown of the Indiana Harbor works of Inland Steel Co. and the idling of some 19,000 workers.

A company spokesman said the dispute involved 200 truck drivers who protested relocation of a garage within the huge plant. Pickets appeared at the gates.

The spokesman added that the pickets carried signs bearing the name of Local 1010 of the United Steelworkers Union.
